
THE RESURRECTED LORD JESUS

Good evening friends. We are happy to be in Phoenix tonight at this service, but we're sorry it being the last night. And so we hope that God will give us His greatest blessings tonight, that there'll be no sick among us when we leave tonight, no one afflicted. I want you here, on the stretchers, cots, and chairs, I want you to do something for me tonight. I want you to believe with all your heart. I'd like to see every one of you walking out tonight, well.

² He loves you, friends. Just because your diseases and things seems to be incurable, that's just Satan telling you that. It's no more for Him to heal you, than it is to heal anybody. You believe with all your heart tonight. Just believe it; don't make any difference how you . . . what your mind says about it; just take what God says about it. I know it's the truth. I wouldn't tell you that, 'less I really knew that it was absolutely the truth.

³ Now, we want to thank, first . . . I guess, Brother Moore, usually the manager does this, but I—I want to take this opportunity, myself, to thank each and every one of you for helping make this the best meeting, I believe, that has . . . we've had in Phoenix; more spiritual and settled than any meeting I've had in Phoenix.

⁵ Appreciate all that did come, and those who couldn't come, why, I appreciate them just the same. And our expenses that way is low, our budget's not very much to make; and so therefore, we don't have to strain the people, just take up a ordinary offering and pay off our debts. As soon as the budget's made, that settles it.

⁶ And I hear that tonight they've given a love offering to me; I certainly appreciate that. Wished I didn't have, take it. But I just got a big obligation; you can imagine what it is. And office going all the time; my obligation's about a hundred dollars a day, regardless of where I'm . . . That's just in Jeffersonville, regardless of whether I'm in the services or not. You can realize how far I go back in the hole, sometime.

7 And now, we send out lots of prayer cloths, like these here. And we send them all over the world. Sometimes as many as a thousand in one day, we've sent out. And all of you are welcome, anytime that I can be of a help to you, why write me and let me know. I don't say that . . . See, many times they say, "Write me," just to get your address. But I don't have any radio programs to sponsor. I don't have anything, just . . . you . . . Nothing that . . . I, just so I can help you. Just to send you a prayer cloth or something another, I'd be glad to do it. Have prayer for you, I'll be happy to do so.

8 And now, I want to thank each and every one of you for your cooperation. All you people's been coming, all that you have given, and the love offering tonight, every penny that doesn't have to go exactly for our little . . . What living we have, we live poor just like the rest of the people. People can't understand that: why I been on the field longer than all the rest of them, and yet don't have anything. It's because that I spend what little I do have in foreign missions, friend, everything. God is my solemn Judge to that, see, that everything I get, I . . .

9 If . . . In the line of finance, if we try to live common, like people, and then what little we have left over, I build it up, build it up, till I get enough to get us overseas. We go over and preach the Gospel, then, to those who's never heard it before, and win thousands times thousands and thousands to Christ. When our money runs out, we come back, come to America, and go through and visit our friends. They help us out a little, and soon as we get enough built up, away we go again.

10 Now, I know it, I got plenty of friends. I got friends setting right in this building, tonight, would just say, "Here Brother Branham, I'll write you a check to go overseas." But that wouldn't be fair to the rest of the people. See? Every one of us wants a little bit in that. That's right. Every fellow his dime, fifteen cents, quarter, whatever it is, that's part in the Kingdom. And that way, then I know it's the Lord sending me over there.

11 I suppose 'fore I see you again, I'll probably have another overseas tour. One's coming up now for all Africa; Tanganyika, Rhodesia, up through into India again. And so, we trust that you'll be praying for us, as we go along.

12 I met one friend today, told me not to mention their name from the platform, but that they're present, they know how we appreciate them, every one of them. I love them with all my heart. And then, some people has been . . . They know that I'm a . . . like to hunt so well, so I've been very well fed with wild animals. They brought me . . . two or three people brought deer to the place I was staying; brought elk, and even buffalo, and javelina hog, so I—I just had a great time.

13 That's my first time for some of that. It was really good. The Lord bless you. If you just know how I loved that. And I thank you so kindly. And first time I'd ever tasted any javelina hog or—or buffalo, and it was really good. And I appreciate it very much. And the elk and deer was wonderful. And I just love that kind of stuff. I don't know what makes me do it, but I—I like it anyhow. I like the woods and the outdoors, so I like what goes with it. So I appreciate you very, very much.

14 And now, to all of you has rallied around, wonderful faith, been wonderful. The meeting's been a little hard on me, friends. This has been the first time in my meetings that I've ever tried to make my own altar call; preach, make my altar call, bring the people to Christ, and then pray for the sick; been pretty hard. For the last few days, I've been almost knocked out. Cause this is just not the only meeting I go to.

15 I just start right straight in California. We're packed right now, most of our stuff, ready to leave for California. And we'll be over there, and then come right back, Macon, Georgia. Right from there up into Colorado, and just on and on, and it certainly gets kind of tiresome.

16 How one time. . . The greatest thrills that I been having in my meetings, especially recently. . . Always turn the altar call over to the manager or someone. But I. . . What a thrill it gives me to see people raising up and accepting the Lord Jesus as personal Saviour. And I am so happy for that.

17 And I want to make. . . I want the ministers to understand this, that, my sponsors and those who are near, I would like to come back to Phoenix sometime, if God willing, just to have a meeting of just preaching the Gospel, and bringing the people to the altar, and laying hands upon them to receive the Holy Spirit. With this discernment, the visions is what knocks me out so.

18 How would you like for us to come back and have a meeting like that? Would you like it? [Congregation applauds—Ed.] Well, God bless you. Thank you very much. Maybe pray for the sick, but not under the discernment, so I can stay a long time, you see; instead of just staying a few nights and having to leave, why, we could stay longer. Thank you kindly.

19 As I'm making my tour across the nation now, before going overseas, I'm asking that. And in Los Angeles on the Christian Business Men, the first five nights of the meeting is just preaching, and laying hands on the sick, and praying for them as they come through the line. We catch everyone then.

20 And now, that is not exactly the way I use my ministry, but it's the way the people are taught, and they believe for that, so I'd like to do it that way awhile. You just can't mix it up, 'cause when visions first start then you have no control of it; it just keeps going. And now, I wish, tonight, I could explain and tell you how that happens, but I can't. That's just as much mystery to me as it is to you.

²¹ Now, I think that that covers everything, except the custodians, and the ushers, and so forth. We thank this Shriner brotherhood for letting us have this auditorium. I hope that the custodians, and managers, and so forth are present. If not, may you tell them the deepest of appreciation. This is the second time they've let us have it, and we appreciate that. The Lord bless them all.

²² And the ushers that's been so kind to help us get the prayer line ready; and especially a little usher has been coming with Billy, helping me in, out here; little fellow, wonderful little chap, I got to shake his hand a few moments ago. And when they're bringing me in, they don't talk, as anyone knows that, so we get to the platform after coming out from prayer.

²³ And we sure thank the brother. And the rest of them, too, Brother Ballard and all this fine bunch of brothers that's setting back here, Brother Falk, or, Fuller, and oh, so many. I know their face but sometimes can't call their name. I think they are wonderful men. And I believe one of them, I believe it's Brother Fuller, starting a revival right after this, is it? Yeah, tomorrow night, we sure, I'll make that announcement, that Brother Fuller here, of the (Is it Fuller Tabernacle? Do you call it?) Faith Temple. Have you already announced it here? I guess anyhow . . .

²⁴ And we're just glad to announce any revival, any time, and, or, where they're going to have . . . Hurry, quickly, everybody attend these revivals that's announced now, and go right on and serve the Lord. Don't let your house light die down. Just keep moving in these revivals.

²⁵ Oh, it's so wonderful to know that the Lord Jesus lives today, isn't it? Lives and reigns within our hearts. And now tonight I don't want to take very much time. I want to speak just a little while on the Word, and then go right into the line of praying for the sick.

²⁶ I had it kind of announced out, that maybe I'd just make a sway call. And then I just kind of feel like, maybe, we just leave it to the Lord, and see what He's going to do about it, that, down to the end of the—the road, when we get to that time. Sometimes He just lets us go right to the last moment, then tell us what to do. So we love Him for that, don't we?

²⁷ Now, the Lord bless you. And pray for me. How many will promise me that you will pray for me? I—I just . . . God bless you, oh, my, children. I just—just think of going in and shaking hands with the people. And how I'd just like to come down through this aisle tonight.

I . . . really the truth, I'd like to go home with every one of you, stay all night, set up and talk a while, get up in the morning and talk. How I'd love to do that; my heart just longs to meet people like that. But I almost have to be an isolationist on account of the type of ministry that I got, 'cause it's, I just can't do that and have the meeting. But God knows that I love you.

28 So I'm making an appointment with every one of you, of this, when I see you in the Glory Land, if God permits me to be there with you, I just want to go over and set down for a thousand years with each one of you and talk. And we will just—just, we won't have no less time to talk than when we first began. We'll talk it all over then, won't we? Won't that be wonderful, set down under the Tree of Life?

29 And you know, we'll be entertained by the . . . all the great singers. There'll be Sankey, and Beverly Shea, and all of them, over on the hill over there, just singing the praises of God. We'll be setting down by the Tree of Life, where the waters are coming out from under the throne. Won't that be marvelous? I just long for the day. What does it matter to a Christian that's really anchored in Christ? For just as soon as this old earthly tabernacle is taken away, we move right into another one, right up there. My, isn't that marvelous?

30 Think: sick, and weary, and broke down, and heartbroken, everything going wrong, the world all in a turmoil, you think, "Well, come, Lord Jesus." The first thing you know, this old, shaky body begin to wither away, and you feel the pains moving through it, the chilly death moving up the sleeve. Then look standing yonder: yonder's a brand new body, standing right yonder; just move out of this one, right into that one.

31 "For when this earthly tabernacle be dissolved, we have one already waiting," just to move into. A new one, not made with hands, but God has made it, fashioned Eternally, the glory of God; to move right into, to become new and young again, to never be sick. Oh, my, what can . . . Why death hasn't got any—any hold on a Christian, has it? Death is just something to bring a Christian right on into the Presence of his Maker. He's wonderful when you can think of Him that way, isn't that right? How that death can't hold a Christian, it just sweeps him right . . .

32 Now, what kind of a body that'll be, before we return to pick up this body, I don't know; it's not revealed to man yet. But we know that we're not going to be spirit after we leave here. The spirit's going to leave this tabernacle, to move into one that God has made. Not just a spirit; it's a body. Amen. Got form, fashion, everything. Oh, that'll be wonderful, won't it?

33 Now, to read just a little out of the Word, 'cause His Words isn't going to fail; my words will, and any other man's word will, but His Word isn't going to fail. So over in Saint Luke . . . I been preaching so much about the Old Testament, I thought, tonight, I'd turn around a little bit, and get some out of the—the New. Just being a typologist, I have to kind of go back and get a line of the Old, to know what the New looks like. So I believe if I had the shadow of the thing, I'll know just about what it is when it gets here, if we see the shadow of it.

34 Now, in the New Testament, Saint Luke the—the 24th chapter, and beginning with the 30th verse. Just for a way of text, we read this, ver- . . . these verses.

And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, that he took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave to them.

And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

And they said one to another, Did not our hearts burn within us, while he talked to us by the way, and while he opened unto us the scriptures?

35 Now, let's ask Him, the resurrected Lord Jesus, if He won't open to us the Scriptures now, while we set and wait on Him. Shall we bow our heads, while we pray?

36 Our beloved Saviour, we have come to Thee tonight, with open hearts, if we know them. We come to Thee with this blessed assurance, that's been placed in our innermost being, that Thou art the Son of the living God, that You died for our sins, and separating us, then, from sin, and has raised from the dead, and now seated at the right hand of the Majesty on high, and has sent back the Holy Spirit.

37 And we thank Thee for the witness of the Holy Spirit, confirming the Words with sign following. We thank Thee for this great, marvelous meeting, that only by Thy grace have we been able to—to fellowship in. How we've fellowshiped around the Word, and around the Spirit of God. All of us, belonging to differen organization, as to say, but all together, and seated in Heavenly places in Christ Jesus, has opened our hearts to the Word and let the Holy Spirit come in. Feed us.

38 Hundreds has received Thee as their Saviour; we're so thankful for it. And the sick, the crippled, those who've been setting in wheelchairs, paralyzed, laying on cots, stretchers, has been made whole and walked out. Blind, deaf, dumb, all kinds of diseases has been healed. And Thou O God, has come into the midst of the people, and their faith has drawed out supernatural words, explaining to them their life, of what they have done, and what they must do, and what will be.

39 God, we're so thankful to know that Jesus lives today. And we pray, now, that He'll come and take the service into His Own care. Sanctify every person that's in here to hearing of the Word tonight. Forgive us of all our shortcoming. Help me tonight, Father. Speak the Word in praying for the sick. And when the service is over, may we say like those from Emmaus, "Did not our hearts burn within us, because of His Presence?" For we ask it in His Name. Amen.

40 Our subject tonight, is, The Resurrected Lord Jesus. It's kind of a basic theme for our campaign. The theme of our campaigns is based upon Hebrews 13:8, that, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever." That He is the same in principle, the same in love, the same in power, the same all just exactly the same; He's the same in His Church. Now, He isn't here in a body form. He's here in a Spirit form and His body was taken up.

41 We believe that God made a covenant with the human race at Calvary. And it was made under the rights of the Oriental way of making a covenant. Under the Oriental way of making a covenant, they killed a beast, split it open, wrote a covenant, tore it apart over the dead beast, one man taking one part, and one, the other. When they come together, those pieces must dovetail together or the covenant will not have to be kept. So they took a oath, that, let their body be as that dead beast if they fail to keep the covenant.

42 That's what God did at Calvary. He taken the body and where He dwelt, Christ Jesus, it was rent and tore apart. The body was taken up to the right hand of the Majesty on high and the Holy Spirit was given down here on earth. And now, the same Spirit that was in that body dwells in the Christian Body tonight. And in the resurrection, that same body will have to coincide, then come together, the same Spirit that was in Christ Jesus has to be in you or you will not be resurrected. Can you see it?

43 Look how God, in the beginning, way, cover all space and time, and out of God went the Logos that went out of God, which was a part of God. God seeing what the end would be, from the beginning, and the Logos come to the earth, which was Christ the Word, spoken Word of God, part of God, and was made flesh and dwelled among us. And then, we come out of Christ, which makes the same Life that was in God, in Christ, in you. And just as sure as God raised This up, we've got to come with the same thing, if the same Spirit is in us, because it's the Spirit of God making us sons and daughters of God.

44 Oh isn't it marvelous? How do we get it? By believing on the Lord Jesus Christ, that's what. Accepting it, and then God in return, gives us the Holy Spirit, crying in our hearts, "Abba Father, my God, my God."

And then we are resurrected in the last days to be caught up. And He said, "That day you shall know that I am in the Father, the Father in Me, I in you, and you in Me."

45 There's the Spirit coming out of God, manifested as the Logos, come down and made flesh, dwelt among us, where He res- . . . died, taken off penalty of sin, raised up again, setting at the Majesty on high, at the right hand of God. And the Holy Spirit coming back, bringing in the same Spirit in the individuals now, to bring them back into relationship with their Creator. Isn't that marvelous?

46 Then all the atomic bombs, and all the . . . Did you see the paper today? Looks like war's fixing to boom again; they're turning their gun. What difference does that make to a real believer, how many guns they turn? Amen. God has got the reins in His hands. Amen. And whenever it gets time for us to—to get away from here, whether it's by, however way that we go, there's nothing, not death, nothing else can separate us from God. We have everlasting Life, can't come into condemnation, 'cause Christ said so: we've already passed from death to Life.

47 Now, in Jerusalem, the beginning of our text tonight, it had been a very marvelous three-and-a-half years. They'd had a revival. The great anticipations waited upon the people, on a Man that the world and the church rejected: the Lord Jesus. He was considered a fanatic. And we'd call, today, if we'd put it in the words, today, He was a holy-roller. He absolutely disagreed with their theology. And yet, God vindicated that He was with Him.

48 Peter said in Acts 2, he said, "You men of Israel, you should have known this. For this Jesus of Nazareth was a Man approved of God among you, by signs and wonders which God did by Him, in the midst of you all, which you also are witnesses. You ought to have knowed it, but," said, "you, with wicked hands have crucified the Prince of Life. Wherefore God has raised Him up, and we're witnesses." That's it. God proved that that was His beloved Son, by the signs and wonders that He did, showing that God was with Him.

49 I want to ask you something, believers, and especially to the . . . my ministering brethren back here. Any time the church, in the last two thousand years, has ever had a revival, or any time in the world that the church ever had a revival, there was signs and wonders accompanying the revival. Yes, sir. Signs of the Supernatural God living in the people, that gives the people a view. What hope do we have, unless we know that there is Something Supernatural?

50 Every man is trying to look apast the curtain of time. You know you come from somewhere, you're going somewhere, so it takes a little peek apast the curtain of time. Moses wanted to see it. God let him see it. So we can see it also, Christ, the resurrected One.

⁵¹ Now, the church that come out of their affiliations with—with the great Orthodox Jewish church at that time, the Sanhedrin, and had brought themselves out, and had followed the Lord Jesus, no matter how black the people penned His Name as a illegitimate child, they recognized that God was in Him.

⁵² He said, “My sheep know My voice.” See, they were spiritual inside, and when they seen Him, they recognized that He was different from them priests, and teachers, and so forth. So they followed Him wherever He went. They loved Him.

⁵³ They couldn’t understand Him. He was a Mystery, even to the Apostles. No one could understand Him, because there was two People talking all the time. The Person Jesus Christ was talking, and God was talking in Him, also. Sometimes it was Christ Himself; sometimes it was the Father that dwelt in Him. You see it? He. . . they couldn’t understand some things He would say; He talked in riddles to them.

Jesus finally said, when He was talking to them one day, how, “I came from God; I come into the world; and I go back again to God.”

⁵⁴ And so the disciples said, “Now You speak plainly. Now we understand, and we believe that—that You know all things, and by this we believe that You are the Son of God. We believe on You, now, because You know all things; God shows You all things; and You need no man to have to tell You, because God just shows it to You. And that’s the reason we believe that You come out from God.” See, after they. . . Right before His crucifixion, Saint John about, I believe the 15th or 17th chapter, I don’t remember, 15, I think.

⁵⁵ All right, notice, now, they’d loved Him and they believed Him, because they seen His works, that God was with Him and confirming the Word that He preached. See, a man can come and say anything. That’s just a man’s word. But when God comes around and says, “That’s the truth,” confirms it, then you better believe it, because God said so. See?

⁵⁶ So He spoke of God being in Him. He said, “It’s not Me that doeth the works; it’s My Father that dwelleth in Me, He doeth the works. I do nothing of Myself; just what the Father shows Me, that I do.” And they found out, that ever what the Father showed Him, and He told them, was just exactly the truth.

⁵⁷ He stood in the audiences, He perceived what they were thinking about. He said, “Why you reason in your heart about that?” See? And He found out things like that; they know it come from God. Then He said that things that He had done, and how the Father showed Him, and He found out everything that He said was the truth. So that was a sign to the Jew, anyhow.

⁵⁸ “If there be one among you who’s spiritual or a prophet, I the Lord will make Myself known to him in visions, speak to him in dreams. And what this prophet says, if it comes to pass, then hear him, for I’m with him. But if it isn’t coming to pass, then don’t hear him, I haven’t spoke to him. Just falsely in flesh, I haven’t heard him, or I haven’t been with him.”

⁵⁹ But it was a sign, and they seen that God was actually manifesting Himself through Christ. And that’s exactly what the Scripture said, “God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself.”

⁶⁰ Now, notice, then along came the disappointing time, that this great, wonderful One Who could speak to the dead, and they would raise again. . . Not all the dead, He just spoke to three of them, as recorded in the Scripture, and the three raised up, because three’s a testimony, a—a witness. “Mouth of two or three witness, every word’s established.” And each time, He said the Father had did it, the Father showed Him what to do.

⁶¹ Now, and they had seen a Man Who could raise the dead, and yet die. Not only die an ordinary death, take sick and die, but would be stood and made fun of, a Man who could perceive their thoughts and tell the people what they were doing, then when come to the test, the trial, had a rag wrapped around His head, and they hit Him on the head with a stick, and said, “You’re a prophesier; tell us who hit you; we’ll believe you now.”

⁶² And reach over, pull beard out of His face, and spit in His face, a Divine Person. How could that be? I imagine His followers said, “Well, why don’t He just do something about it?” Well, if He’d have done something about it, you and I would been in an awful fix tonight. He couldn’t do nothing about it, save Himself and save others, He had to give Himself.

⁶³ So He didn’t clown with His gifts and power. They hit Him on the head, said, “Now, tell us who—who hit you.” Then when He was on the cross. . . He could save others and still the waves of the sea. And here with a raging fever on Him, and Him dying, the Blood coming out of Him, and the Jews said, “Now, if you be the Son of God, show us a miracle. Do something for us. Come down off the cross, and we will believe you to be the Son of God. We’ll believe you if you’ll come off the cross.”

⁶⁴ See? That critical spirit, how that God, how He just let those things happen so. “That the. . . it fools the wise and prudent and will reveal it to babes, such as will learn.” You’ve got to forget all you ever know, and let yourself be submissive to the Spirit of God, then God can go on to teach you.

⁶⁵ Don't try to go away and get all these big educations and scholarships to know God. You don't know God by scholarship; you know God by faith. You believe Him, and God reveals Himself to you. I like that, don't you? He's made it so simple, so humble.

⁶⁶ Now, so humble and it's so simple, till the wise people can't understand it. It's so simplified, till the wise don't get it. They try to make it complicated to the church. They try to make it a great big lots of sanctifying things you have to do, and stop this, and do this, and all this, that, and the other. And, why, it's not at all; just believe it, and accept it and that settles it. God comes into the heart, and He takes care of the rest of it. If He can ever gain the—the . . . in your heart, gain a place in your heart, then the rest of it will take care of itself. I love that.

⁶⁷ Notice, then how could a Divine Man, Who they thought would be the King that was coming, the Deliverer of Israel, that that Man, to humiliate Himself, to let the unclean Gentiles hit Him on the head, and not say a word to them? Why didn't He show His power? God has times and ways of doing things. They pulled His beard out, spit in His face, what a insult. "Do something about it; you're the king."

⁶⁸ He said, "I could ask My Father, and He'd send Me twelve legions of Angels, but My Kingdom's not of this world." See? Said, "You don't understand it."

⁶⁹ "Oh," they said, "Away with such a heretic." And they got Him up there and crucified Him, and He died, and they buried Him, and put Him away, and sealed Him in the tomb.

⁷⁰ Now, you talk about disappointed people to have to go out and face the world again, after they'd come out of their churches, believing in that type of religion. And they come out of their churches, then had to go back and face their churches again, after the very thing they'd believed on, seemingly, had failed. There it, they . . . Seemingly all hopes was gone.

⁷¹ The very One that they thought was the Divine Prophet, or, the—the Messiah, He had been so bitterly abused before the people, and so powerless and helpless. When He was out amongst the people He done all kinds of signs, but when He was standing here on trial, He never even tried to defend Himself, just let them all beat Him around, put Him against the lashing post, take those great cat o' nine tails, great big balls of lead on the end of leather, and split His back down with them, when they give Him the lashes across His back; never opened His mouth.

⁷³ Now, enter the peoples' mind: "How could that been the Son of God, and could let the people treat Him, and mash Him around, and do that to Him?" See, not knowing the Scriptures is the reason they did. . . they. . . that was. Now, we'll see in a few minutes.

⁷⁴ All right, they'd buried Him, so, well, the Sabbath was over, the first day of the week come along, so they stayed up for the Sabbath. Peter got his fish nets and was going back out to go at his commercial trade again, fishing. "Well, I guess I was wrong after all. Maybe that Fellow was a fanatic."

⁷⁵ I can see Cleopas and his friend saying, "Well, let's go on back to Emmaus; it's all over. The Man we had so much confidence in to be a real, true, Divine Man sent from God, a real Divine Person, yet it must've really been, maybe the big church was right: 'That was mental telepathy; He was reading their mind.'" See?

⁷⁶ Human beings: "Maybe really He was a spiritualist. Maybe He was just a spiritualist, and that's the reason the earth shook and things, when He died up there. Maybe He was just what the priest said He was, a Beelzebub. All the church. . . Maybe that was right."

⁷⁷ So he picked up his friend, said, "Let's go on the road back now, back over to Emmaus, to home, and we'll start our carpenter trade," or whatever it was, "start back to building," or whatever they was going do. All dishearted, going along the road, sad, not knowing that the blessed Lord Jesus had resurrected on that Easter morning, and was alive among the people.

⁷⁹ And here they are, on their road going over to their place, walking along the road. I'd just. . . I'd like to listen in on them, wouldn't you, just a minute, stand around, see what they were saying? I hear one of them saying, "Well, Cleopas, what do you think about it? I'm disappointed. Well, I guess we'll just have to face the preacher again, tell him, 'I guess we were wrong in this Fellow.' My, I hate to do that; my confidence was really built up in Him."

80 And notice, while they spake about Him, talked about Him, He appeared. That's a good way to get Him around you: talk about Him all the time. Amen. Keep your conversation, not on who's, or, where the next play comes up on the television, or the next movie's going to come, or who's going to be elected president: talk about Jesus.

81 Christians talk about everything but Christ in these days. Go out, they always got a bunch of nonsense and everything they want to talk about or something, but never talking about Christ. Talk about Him; sing about Him. Love Him; keep Him on your heart and mind all the day and night.

82 David said about the . . . he'd bind the laws upon his fingers and the bedpost, and so He'd be before him all the time. That's the way: keep Him before you in memory, thought, praise, speech. All that you do keep Christ before you. That's the way to keep Him near you.

83 While they were talking about Him, He appeared on the scene, unknown to them. Many of the people that really loved Him didn't know that He had raised from the dead. And if that's the . . . if that isn't a true sense of the word tonight, I don't know what it is. Many of the people that really love the Lord Jesus can't understand that He's here.

84 He's in this building right now. He's moving in and out of the people, the resurrected Lord Jesus. It's so hard for people to see that. Look, you setting along here in these chairs and cots and things, if you could see that, you'd . . . and believe it with all your heart, and accept His Word, you'd go out of here tonight a perfect, well person. Yes, for He has risen from the dead.

85 Notice, walking with them, they loved Him, and they didn't know it, they didn't know that He was. Many times He's been right along with you, and there maybe, when you was just about to have an accident, something happened; you don't know what happened. Something took place; that was Him. When the doctor come over, said, "The baby, I don't see how it can live." And after while, the baby got well; that was Jesus. He's with you. Oh, how wonderful.

86 Here long ago, a little woman that was . . . I remember she went to live down below my church; she does now, at Jeffersonville. She was in a sanatorium at Waverly Hills, and they brought her down, and they said, "The doctor said she had to die right away." They was going to give her, I believe ten days, two weeks to live, a tubercular case. And I went down there to see her.

87 They called me down, about, been about eight years ago or ten, just before I come to Phoenix the first time. And I went down there and was praying for the woman. She had about five little children. And I was praying with her that night, and while I prayed and got up, I seen her, even with tinted-gray hair. She was . . . hair was dark brown. And I seen her with tinted-gray hair. Her children walking in, shaking hands with her, years later. And I said, “Sister, THUS SAITH THE LORD; you’re going to live.”

⁸⁸ She started weeping. She said, “Reverend Branham, something’s happened in my heart.” She said, “I—I just feel that I’m going to live. Something just satisfies me, I’m going to get well.”

I said, “You are, for it’s THUS SAITH THE LORD.” I went back up, told them at the church.

⁸⁹ There was a man lived next door to me, very fine friend, and he had a hobby of making leather things. By the way, he made me this pocketbook, that I’ve had . . . carried that for ten years, and he made it out of a deerskin that I got myself. Got the picture of my tabernacle on it, the inside, it’s got a fish here and a deer head here. So he made me that old pocketbook, and I’ve carried it in memorial of that, for so long.

The Protestant said, “Well, it’s inspired as much as I believe. The rest of it’s not inspired.”

⁹³ Fussing, fighting, arguing, separating, oh, it’s a pitiful thing. I’m sure glad God got a hold of me before the church did (That’s right. Yes, sir.), that God caught me first, ’cause I’d probably been an unbeliever, when I see what people call themselves Christians and— and church and so forth, and each one wanting to pull little gnats and everything from one to the other, and separating, unseemingly, not having the faith. Sure.

⁹⁴ Now, this man was a perfect infidel. And somebody got the news out the next day that I said that about the woman. I hadn’t went out having services yet. I was patrolling out up on high lines and my clothes ragged. I got on my old bicycle and went over to get some groceries down at the store, and had to turn the corner where that woman lived, just two blocks below where I was. And here come the infidel walking down the street. And he spoke to me.

I said, "Good morning, sir."

And he said, "Hello, preacher." Said, "Just a minute, I want to talk to you." He said, "Aren't you ashamed of yourself?"

And I said, "What?"

He said, "Telling that poor little dying mother in there, that she was going to live, building that people up under a false hope like that."

I said, "Well, I never built them up under no false hope."

⁹⁵ He said, "Well, she's dying." Said, "Her husband works with me out there at the government." And said, "He told me that you come over there last night, and, or, night before last it was then, and prayed for her. And she . . . and you told her that she was going to be well and live to be an old woman."

I said, "That's right. I never did that; God did that."

He said, "Nonsense," he said, "shame on you. You ought to be gentleman enough not to build people up under such things, false as that."

I said, "That's not false."

He said, "Away with such." Turned around and walked on.

⁹⁶ And I thought, "Well, okay." And I went on, got my groceries, I come back. About two or three days after that. . . He had a lovely little wife was a believer, and so I. . . my wife knew her real well, said she was a lovely lady. And she belonged to the Christian church. So my wife told me when I come in, said, "Well, that Mrs. Andrews is very ill, Billy." Said, "You ought to go over and see her."

⁹⁷ I said, "All right." I said, "Her husband's that infidel," I said, "I—I have to walk easy." So I said, "I'll go over and ask him if I can get in some kindling and coal for him, and maybe he will ask. . . maybe she'll ask me if I. . . want me to pray for her."

And so I went over, and I said, "Howdy do, Mr. Andrews."

He said, "Hello, preacher."

And I said, "I hear you got a sick wife."

Said, "Yes, I have, but I've got a good doctor with her."

⁹⁸ I said, "Yes, sir. I just wanted to ask you Mr. Andrews, being that we're neighbors here so close, if I could help you get in some coal or run a errand to the grocery, anything, I—I'd do it for you."

99 Said, "Aw, well, thank you very much." But said, "We got a good doctor with her; everything will be all right." He told me who the doctor was in the city.

And I said, "He is a fine man." I said, "I like him very much."

"Yeah, we got the situation," said, "she's got appendicitis," and said, "it'll be all right," said, "he's freezing it out; it'll be okay."

100 I said, "Thank you, Mr. Andrews, I certainly hope so. If I can be of any help to you, I live next door, just call me." Shut the door, went on back, kind of unconcerned.

101 Well, the next day the doctor come up, said, "We'll have to take her to the hospital; she's swelling awful bad." Said, "We'll have to take her to the hospital and operate."

102 So they took her out to the hospital, and when they took the blood test from her, found out she didn't have appendicitis. So they sent to Louisville for a specialist. And they got the specialist over there, and the specialist examined her, and when he did he said, "She's got between four and six hours to live. There's a blood clot right near the heart; that's what's swelling." Said, "She's gone; that's all."

103 So my wife told me the next morning said, "Mrs. Andrews is going to die, Billy." Said, "I just heard that she's got a blood clot. The nurse, one of the nurse, friend, called up, said, 'She's—she's fixing to die,' said, 'she's already unconscious.'"

104 I said, "It's too bad, Meda, I hate to hear that. Poor thing," I said, "we'll just pray for her." So we prayed, and I went on and started off to work.

And it was kind of drizzling rain, and I was going out through the field. Something kept saying, "Turn and go back. Turn and go back."

105 So I thought, "Well, I'd turn and go back." So I went back, called up and turned in as inclement weather, so I couldn't work, just for that, 'cause I knew the Lord wanted something. And so, first thing you know, I set there, and taking my old gun apart, and was cleaning it out.

106 And the first thing you know, coming around the house, come Mr. Andrews, walking along, his hat pulled down over his ears, knocked on the door, and he said, "Mrs. Branham," said, "is Preacher Branham here?"

Said, "Yes, Mr. Andrews, won't you come in?" So he come in.

I said, "Hello, Mr. Andrews; get you a chair." I just kept working on my gun, you know.

And he said, "Um, uh, Preacher."

I said, "Yes, sir."

He said, "My—my wife's pretty sick. You heard about it?"

¹⁰⁷ I said, "Yes, I heard she was going to die, Mr. Andrews." I said, "It's too bad." I said, "Course, you got a real good doctor out there." And I said, "I—I just hope she gets along all right." Just kept . . .

He said, "Well," said, "we got a specialist; you understood that?"

I said, "Yes, I understood you did, Mr. Andrews, heard it was a blood clot near the heart."

Said, "Yes," said, "that's right." Said, "My," said, "she's in awful shape."

I said, "Yes, sir, that sure is too bad."

¹⁰⁸ I thought, "You sweat it out. You made me sweat it, so now you sweat a while." So I just kept cleaning on my gun, let him do some sweating. So I just kept cleaning on my gun, looking through it like that. It was clean, but I just wanted him, take a little while, so I kept looking through it like that.

And he said, "Preacher," he said, "you know what?"

I said, "What, Mr. Andrews?"

He said, "I wonder if you could help her a little bit."

And I said, "What do you mean?"

He said, "You know, um . . ."

I said, "You mean, pray for her?"

He said, "Yes."

¹⁰⁹ I said, "I thought you didn't believe in such." See? I said, "I thought you told me less than a week ago, down there at the corner, you didn't even believe there was a God."

He said, "Well," he said, "you know . . ."

¹¹⁰ I thought, "Yeah, when the time comes, you'll believe. That's right, just let it get close enough to your own door one time, you'll believe it." And I said he's . . . "Well, all right, Mr. Andrews."

What he . . . He said, "Wou—would you go out and pray for her?"

I said, "I want to ask you something, Mr. Andrews." I said, "How about you kneeling here with me, and let's pray for her right here."

And he said, "Well," he said, "I—I don't hardly know what to do."

I said, "You just kneel here; I'll instruct you."

¹¹¹ And so he got down there. I said, "Now, raise up your hands." And he rai- . . . I said, "The first thing, from the bottom of your heart, say, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner.'" So I got him to praying, and he got to crying, so, oh, my, we had . . .

¹¹² He said, got up, wiped his eyes; he said, “Well, preacher, you—you—you think now she’s going to be helped?” I said. . . He said, “Would you go out?”

¹¹³ And I said, “Yes, I’ll go out and see her.” So I said to Meda, “Get your coat on.” We went out there, and when she did, she didn’t know us. Just swollen way up her eyes, and her lips turned out.

¹¹⁴ So, little nurse, when I come in, she said, “Come on, Brother Branham.” She taken me up there. And I knelt down, prayed for her, put my hand over on her, stood there a little while.

My wife stood there, and she said, “See anything?”

I said, “No honey, I don’t.”

¹¹⁵ We walked out, down around where the babies was and looked in the maternity ward there, you know, where the babies is all laying. She was talking about them. I went back to Mrs. Andrews again; just as I went in the door, I seen it. Oh, my, why, I said, “Honey, it’s going to be over. Don’t worry; God has heard.”

And I went home. Mr. Andrews come over, he said, “What do you think about it, preacher?”

I said, “She’s going to live.”

He started crying, my. And he hollered, “She’s going to live.”

¹¹⁶ I said, “Don’t worry; God has done said by the same vision told that woman down there she was going to live, and now she’s up, down there, the woman,” I said, “now, Mrs. Reece now,” I said, “now, she’s going to live too.”

And he said, “Oh, I’m so glad, preacher.”

In a few moments the phone rang, and he went over. Said, “Come to your wife at once; she’s dying.”

So he come told me, I said, “Do you believe what I told you?”

He said, “Well, preacher, I want to,” said, “but they tell me she’s dying.”

I said, “Ah, that don’t make a bit of difference what they say.” I said, “When God speaks anything, it’s got to be just that way.”

So he said. . .so the first thing you know, he said, “Oh, I can’t go see it.”

I said, “See what?” I said, “You still think she’s going to die, don’t you?”

He said, “I’m just all nervous.”

I thought, “That’s good for you right now, you see, to sweat it out good.”

117 So just let it go; and the first thing you know, another phone call come; they called him across the street. Here he went over, and he come back. And then he said, "I got to go to the hospital right at once." So out to the hospital he went.

And I . . . Meda said, "What do you think about it?"

118 I said, "Why, don't worry about it. God has done said so; that settles it." I said, "If that woman don't bake me an apple pie in three days from now, and I'll be setting on that porch and eat it, then I'm a false prophet." That's right. She could really bake a good one too. So I—I knew it; so I told her . . . told them right there at the hospital, told the nurse that. I said, "She bakes me a pie in three days from now. If that isn't so, then I'll—I'll walk out of the ministry." That's right. I said, "Because it absolutely is the truth."

119 And you know, he come back across the field in a few moments, and the mucus running out of his nose, and he was leaping and jumping like that. He said, "Preacher, preacher, guess what happened." Said, "I went there to see her, and time I got there," said, "the something had broke loose," said, "all the water had run out of her, and she was setting up in the bed, said she was hungry. And I called the nurse." And said, "They brought her up some bouillon, and she said, 'Take that stuff out; I want some wieners and sauerkraut.'" Said, "She's just normal and well." She lives today. And God of Heaven, Who looked down . . .

120 About a week afterward he made me that pocketbook that I've carried ever since in my pocket, around the world. That's right; that is the truth; God in Heaven knows it. She lives tonight, why? Cause Jesus lives, she lives also. God said so. That's right.

121 Jesus, when He spoke to them, begin to reveal to them . . . Notice, the very thing . . . They said . . . He said, "Why are you sad?" Christians shouldn't be sad; they should be happy, real happy, joy. He said, "Why are you so sad?"

122 He . . . they said, "Are You just a stranger, and don't know that Jesus of Nazareth, a Prophet, that we expected to take the throne of David . . .?" Said, "We all had faith in Him. He done great signs and wonders before us, and what a great Prophet He was. And then they delivered Him . . . the people delivered Him up to Pilate, and they crucified Him, bury Him." And said, "This is the third day since that's happened." Said, "Some of our women of our group went up to the grave, probably to put some flowers on it, or whatever more," and said, "they said the tomb was empty; and they seen a vision that told them He was raised from the dead." And said, "Well then, course we believe that was a foolish story." And said, "Then," said, "one more was with our group, he said that he seen something about it."

123 And he went ahead, and He said, He started . . . Watch, Jesus never started to arguing with them or talking. He said . . . Watch what He did: went straight to the Word. That's it. Brother, the Word of God: that's the basis and foundation. For all salvation and healing, lays in the Word, not your feelings, not what you think about it, but what God has said about it. Amen. Oh, I wished I could have a tack, that I could tack that in your heart, where it would never leave.

124 Today, I was reading a little place of Scripture, Joel . . . Amos 8:11, where It said, "There would be a famine, not with bread, or, for bread and water, but for hearing of the Word of God; that people would go from the sea to the sea, from east from west, to and fro, everywhere, seeking the . . . for the Word of God and fail to find it." If that don't fit this nation at this time, I don't know where it does fit. That's right. We don't need bread; we got plenty of it. We got plenty to eat, plenty clothes to wear, nice homes to live in, and everything; but there's a famine for the hearing of the Word of God. A man don't know what to believe. That's right.

125 You're all confused; one say this, and one say that, and one say this, and one say something else. Base your thoughts on THUS SAITH THE LORD. God will confirm it.

126 Jesus went right straight to the Word and begin to pour the Word in; said, "Fools and slow of heart, not to understand." Went back in the Old Testament and begin to prove how that Christ should suffer and raise the third day.

127 So they got to the little place where they were going, so they went into the restaurant. So He made out like He was going on by. Did you ever have a time . . .? Maybe this poor man laying here suffering on this cot, He's made out like He's going to pass by you; He won't. See? Invite Him in.

128 Maybe this poor man setting here in a—a crutch, the man setting in a wheelchair; He might act like He's going to pass by you tonight, but He won't. Just invite Him to come to you, see what happens. Just invite Him in.

129 They said, "Oh, come in; we just love to hear You teach the Word. We heard all the Pharisees and so forth, but there was something about Your teaching was different. Come in; let's . . . teach us a little more." So they went in. And once inside the door, maybe a humble little hut, no matter how humble it was, but it's never too humble for Him to come into.

130 No matter how poor you are, how bad off you are, you're never too bad off but what Jesus will come in at your invitation. No matter how much you've sinned, what you've done, just give Him an invitation, He will come right in and make His abode. Isn't that lovely?

¹³¹ All right, they invited Him in; and once in, the doors closed behind Him, He will shut the rest of the world out. Now, if you're just a little superstitious tonight, of the Presence of the Lord, when the meeting's going on, invite Him into your heart, and then close the door and the rest of your unbelief on the outside. See if He don't make Hissself known to you.

¹³² Once in there, set down at the table, the waitress probably come, and they ordered their supper. And as they put it out on the table, no doubt His heart beating, looking at them, and them looking at Him, He . . . They didn't know it. Why the Bible said their eyes were closed; they didn't—they didn't understand it. They were setting right with Him, walking right with Him, talking right with Him, here eating with Him, and didn't know Who He was.

¹³³ And friend, that's as true as it can be today. That's as true as I'm standing on this platform that the resurrected Jesus Christ is right in this building, talking to individuals right now, if you could only recognize that that's His Voice. I pray that He'll make Hissself manifested after a while, and prove to you that He's here in the building.

¹³⁴ Jesus is not dead, He's risen from the dead. And He's here on earth, carrying on the ministry that He had be- . . . when He was here on earth in the physical form. He's carried on through human beings as He promised He would. "The very things that I do, shall you do also." Saving, doing the will of Fa- . . . the Father, that's what He came for. And He's here tonight.

¹³⁵ And when He had those disciples in there, set at the table, He looked at them, He thought, "Well, you've heard Me teach the Gospel now. You heard Me preach today, so I believe I'll just let you know that I'm really Him." So He picked up some bread, and He just done it a little different from what other men did it, so they realized that it was Him. And their eyes were opened, and they recognized, and He vanished from their sight.

¹³⁶ My, they was a Sabbath Day's journey, getting over there, but they sure went back light-footed, lighthearted, leaping and jumping and praising the Lord. They knew that He was risen from the dead. Went back. . . he didn't go back to argue their religion, now; they went back with one thing in their heart: Jesus has risen from the dead.

¹³⁷ That's the thing tonight, not arguing religions, arguing different phases, argue about different church denomination, arguing about different nation, what the world needs to know tonight: Jesus has risen from the dead, and He lives among men. Amen. Not argue about pinpoint this, and cut this, and move this, and this inspired; just forget it, and look unto Him, and believe He raised from the dead, and He will manifest Himself to you. Amen. Just that simple.

You say, “Well, if an Angel was preaching that . . .” God didn’t ordain Angels to preach the Gospel. He ordained men to preach the Gospel.

¹³⁸ He never said to the Angels, “I’ll be with you and in you.” He said to men, “I’ll be with you and in you.” He never said to Angels, “The things that I do, you’ll do also.” He said to men, “The things I do, you’ll do also.”

¹³⁹ The Gospel comes by preaching of the Word. God manifests Himself through human beings. Amen. The only eyes God has got on the earth tonight is mine and yours, the only hands He has is our hands: God working in His people; God is in the universe; God is in His Word; God is in His Son; God is in His people.

¹⁴¹ Wake up, people. Don’t be carried about with every wind of doctrine, saying, “The days of miracles is past, and these things are for another age.” Don’t be tossed about; believe the resurrected Lord Jesus. That was their teaching back there when He was raised and . . . on that Easter morning. But He was alive, and He’s here tonight. He’s here; don’t never forget that.

¹⁴² If you never remember a thing that I’ve ever said to you, remember me by this: that Jesus Christ the Son of God raised from the dead and is alive today among men, hunting out sinners, heal the sick and the afflicted. He’s the same in every way that He ever was and ever will be; the same yesterday, today, and forever, the Lord Jesus, seeking lost sinners.

¹⁴³ Are you lost? If you are saved, it’s wonderful. But if you’re lost, God has a preparation to save you by. The worst thing I can think of is somebody lost. Being a— a hunter, I go into the mountains . . .

¹⁴⁴ Just a minute before closing now, and then we’ll start praying for the sick, just in a minute. I feel the Holy Spirit would have me to call the people up here, pray for them.

¹⁴⁵ Now, I was lost once in the woods. I went up near the Canadian border, where I’d been. I thought I was just too good a woodsman to ever get lost. And when you trust in yourself, yeah, that's when you get lost; that's when you are lost. That's when Adam was lost, when he trusted in hisself to make a fig leaf to cover himself over. See? He had to come on the merits of the shed blood.

¹⁴⁶ And whenever you think, "Oh, I go to church; I'm as good as you are, preacher." Certainly you are, but are you as good as God wants you to be? You ain't good in the first place, and I ain't good in the first place. The only goodness that's in us is what God did for us through Jesus Christ. That's right. Yes, sir. We're all sinners, but the only way we can be saved is by accepting the Lord Jesus and His free pardon.

¹⁴⁷ Now, I was totally lost. I told my wife I'd be back. I took her; Billy was just a little baby, little bitty fellow about three, four years old, I believe five years old. And we was way in the head of the Adirondack, near the Canadian border. And we drove up about twenty-five, thirty miles up an old log road like that, where they'd done some chopping, cutting pulp wood. And we come to the ranger's camp. I'd hunted in there for years.

¹⁴⁸ I told the wife I was going to bear hunt, and I said, "I'm going down here to hunt deer, and I'll pick up a deer, come back; I'll be back by noon."

¹⁴⁹ She said, "I'll be waiting for you." Cold that night; we had to take little Billy and put him between us, keep him from freezing to death; cold November and the limbs were freezing, dropping off the trees. Had a little shelter, the rest of the cabin was locked. The Hurricane Mountain, the tower set up there, and we was going to go way back over in the other part of the country to hunt.

¹⁵⁰ So he was going to unlock the cabin, and she could go in there, her and Billy stay, while we taken the trip and went away; so, her just a kid, merely, herself, about twenty-one, twenty-two years old. And so, that night—that night we like to froze. So, built a little fire and make a little lean-to, and so then the next morning I started out to get a deer, 'cause he was supposed to come that day.

¹⁵¹ And so, I told her I'd be back at noon. And I went down across the hill through some choppings. Come back up along the ridge, and I—I seen a bobcat cross, and I couldn't get close enough to it to shoot it so I went on up over a hill. And I trailed up along the side and went into a great big bear den. And there wasn't nothing in there; I come back, went down towards the giants, what they call the giants: a great massive forest in there for miles after miles, all flat woods, like, in there, it's hard.

¹⁵² So I got way down on the side, and I seen a deer over, a great big fellow, and I shot the deer. When I got through over there, I—I said,

“Well now, looky here, it’s after twelve o’clock, so I got to hurry.” And I went back, started back up this way. And I . . . It come, a—a storm was coming down, fog. When it gets foggy in the woods, any hunter knows that’s a dangerous time. You can’t hardly see your hand before you.

¹⁵³ Well, I started walking. I said, “I’ve got to hurry.” And I went around; I kept walking, walking, walking, walking. I thought, “Well my, where’d I turn off at?” And the first thing you know, I happened to stop, look, I thought, “Well I’ve seen this place somewhere.” Looked up, and there hung my deer. Um-hum. Well, I knowed what I’d walked around somewhere. So I said, “Now, I’ve got to go one certain way.” And I walked again, come back to the place three times, right straight.

¹⁵⁴ Now, the Indian calls that the “death walk,” you know. So that’s what you are; you’re walking in a circle. And I knew that, but how was I going to get out?

¹⁵⁵ And now, the storm was right down, blowing in the top of the trees, fog just turning. And I thought, “Now, the sensible thing to do . . .” I’d have went into somewhere, in—in a cave somewhere and hibernated-up till the storm was over, and then climbed up to a high place, and see where I was, and go on. But I got a wife and baby up there, would freeze to death and die that night. They never were in the woods in their life. They didn’t know how to take care of themselves, and scare them to death anyhow. Well, I knowed they’d both die that night; I had to find them. And what a feeling, oh, my, baby and wife to die in the woods that night.

¹⁵⁶ And, but I thought I was too good to ever be lost in the woods. So I—I went around; I thought—I thought, “Well now, here I’ve got to go one way.” I thought, “As I come up the mountain, the wind was facing me in the face. I come down this way, so that would throw it this way.” I thought, “Now, the storm coming, which way did it come?”

¹⁵⁷ Now the winds had changed, and in the pockets and circuits, it’ll blow any way, blow this way a while, and then this way a while. And oh, and it was cloudy, and fog hanging; moss on both sides of the tree down that low place, so wasn’t nothing in the world I could find for a landmark. Bark (down in there, course the wind don’t get down in there like it does in a blizzard) on both sides was thick; so there was nothing in the world I could find to get myself out of the woods.

¹⁵⁸ So, I said, “Well . . .” I—I got . . . begin to get nervous. And anyone knows what happens, then you take a fever, and you either commit suicide or die. So, I said, “Oh, my.” I thought, “I got to get out of here; I’ve got . . .” Oh, I said . . . set down a minute, I said . . . slapped myself on the side of the face, I said, “Looky here, William Branham, you’re not lost. What's the matter with you, boy? You know how to get out of here." I was bluffing myself.

¹⁵⁹ I was lost, sure I was lost. I said, "Why, you're too good in the woods to ever get lost. My goodness, what would your grandfather think about you, to see you setting here acting like this? Why get up from here." I got up and walked a little bit farther, and I was still lost, that's all. And I said, "Well, I got to make . . . I got to get out of here some way." So I said, "I'm going to make one straight beeline right this way." And I said, "I'm not going to vary at all. I'm going right straight this way, and I know I'm going to come right out straight to Hurricane Mountain. If I could only see Hurricane Mountain, well, I'd know where the tower was, and I could get down from there. I don't know whether I'm east of it, or west of it, or where I'm at."

¹⁶⁰ So fog just blowing, the timbers cracking, so I said, "Here I go, right this way." And I started going, tramping. Something telling me, right beside of my ear, said, "I am a very present Help in the time of trouble." I just kept moving on. "I'm the Lord; I'm a very present Help in the time of trouble."

¹⁶¹ I thought, "Looky here, I—I know I'm going out, now. There's something getting wrong with me. See?" I said, "I'm hearing voices. I . . . There—there's something wrong with me." I said, "Looky here, straighten yourself up, boy, what's the matter with you? You've got to go on. You're not lost. You know exactly where you're at, now go on." And I thought, looked down here; it was already four-thirty in the afternoon. I thought, "Oh, my, I was supposed to be there at noon. She's having screaming spells, now." Cause she knowed . . . That kid, in the woods, never was in the woods in her life, that little baby up there, wouldn't even know how to make a fire, nothing.

¹⁶² So, and then they'd be scared of me out like that, they're—they're scared of wild animals, and, wasn't nothing to hurt them, of course, but they was—they was scared. And so I just kept walking on, and I kept hearing something said, "I am a very present Help in a time of trouble. A very . . . I'm the Lord. I'm a very present Help in the time of trouble."

¹⁶³ I stopped and I thought, "Wonder if that could be Him speaking?" I said, "Am I man enough to admit I'm lost? Am I man enough to admit that I'm lost?" I took off my hat, and laid it down, I said, "Dear God, I'm lost. I am lost; I don't know where I am. I don't know how to get out of here." I knelt down on my hat, and I set my gun beside the tree.

¹⁶⁴ I said, "Father, I am totally lost, I'm . . . by feeling that self-sustaining in myself, I—I deserve to die. But, Lord, have mercy on my poor little wife and baby out there. They're going to die too. They're worthy to live, and I'm unworthy. But I'm, Lord, I'm lost and will You help me for their sake?"

165 I said, "I don't know what to do. If that's You speaking, saying You're a present Help in the time trouble, You be my Compass now. You take me out. There's none of the natural signs around me. But I'm lost. Will You help me?"

166 I raised up, wiped my eyes, and I thought, "Well, God, You direct me. Here I go, I don't know which way I'm going, but I'm going to walk. I believe I come this way." I said, "I'm going, now that's my own opinion, I'm going this way." And I put my hat down, picked up my rifle, started off going this way.

167 Now, just as true as I'm standing on this platform tonight, this Bible, I felt Somebody put Their hand on my shoulder. And I turned to see Who it was, and just as I turned, the fog cleared away, back this way. And I seen the tower on Hurricane Mountain, back this way.

168 I turned this way real quick and faced myself, took off my hat, threw down my rifle, raised up my hands. I said, "O God, oh, how I appreciate this. Lord, I was going right into Canada. I'd have been . . . I'd never come out of it." I said, "Lord that was my own opinion."

And sometimes, you taking your own opinion, you'll go wrong every time. Pray and ask God what to do.

169 And I looked towards that; I thought, "I've got to keep my face set right straight the way." Now, the fog covered up again. It just cleared back enough to I could see that the . . . I knowed if I could ever get up to that tower or cross that line across that side of the mountain . . .

170 I helped the ranger put up that telephone line that run down to the camp where his wife stayed in the summertime. And I knowed if I could ever get to that, I'd get a hold of that line, no matter how bad it was storming, I could find my way to my family. And I . . . as I stood there looking that way, Something come to me, said, "Yes, you was lost again worse than this. But just keep your eyes on Calvary."

171 I started like that, walking, walking. I couldn't bypass; I couldn't go around; it'd throw me off of my—my course. I was about, at least five miles from it and it were getting dark right then. And I went through the bushes, and deers jumped up ahead of me. I'd fall and skin my legs all up. Pitch dark, and I was pulling then trying to get up these cliffs and things, trying to keep my course just the best as I could.

172 I thought, "I'm on top now, it looks like." Now, I couldn't see that line, so I just kept my hands up like this. Put my rifle down over my shoulder in sling, put my hands up, and just kept walking. I said, "I got my hands up, Lord. Let me feel that line when I pass over it." Snow hitting me in the face, and brush, I kept walking; and the first thing you know, something touched my hand. I felt it; it was that wire. Oh, my, you don't know what a feeling it was. I knowed if I'd follow that wire, don't take my hand off of it, follow that wire right down that hill about two-and-a-half or three miles, I'd be right with my wife and baby down at the bottom of the hill.

¹⁷³ There it come to me: Yes, every man alienated from God, cut off in this world, not knowing where he's going, carried about everywhere. But if you'll look to Calvary, hold up your hands to God, and accept Christ as your Saviour until something strikes your hand, that's the way Home. Follow the leading of the Holy Spirit then. Hold your hand in His unchanging hand; it will lead you right straight to your Lover, the Lord Jesus. You believe it?

Shall we bow our head just a moment, pray?

¹⁷⁴ Our Heavenly Father, I think of the old song, that said, "I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind but now I see." And I think of that blinding storm that night, my heart jumping, fever raging in my body, scared to death, knowing that I'd perish that night, and so would my wife and baby.

¹⁷⁵ God, there may be men and women setting in here tonight, that's also, in the spiritual realms, in that same prediction. Their family will perish if dad doesn't come, or mother, one, quickly. The children will be carried about out here in the world. May they tonight, look through this misty fog that hangs over the earth and see Calvary, raise their hands to the Lord Jesus, and touch the Lifeline that leads Home.

Grant it, Lord, our last night in this series of services, bless every wayward, lost man or woman.

¹⁷⁶ Maybe they trusted in the arm of flesh. Maybe they've trusted in some church creed, but never ever touched the Line. They never had that blessed assurance in their heart, that this is the Line that leads to happiness, freedom, and to the Lord Jesus, the Line that runs from Calvary to Glory.

¹⁷⁷ May every dark, staggering, alienated person in the building tonight reach their hand, Father, feel around just a moment. They'll touch Something that will anchor a faith in their heart that'll lead them to Glory.

¹⁷⁸ While we have our heads bowed, everyone praying. If I should return a year from today, many of you here won't be here. Two thousand people, I guess, in here tonight; somebody will slip out. Have you been staggering in darkness? Been coming to the meetings, you look, and you see the signs of the Lord Jesus resurrected; You hear the Word; He's been talking to you back there, and you're staggering along in darkness. Will you raise your hand to Him tonight, and say, "Lord Jesus, I—I want to touch the Lifeline, now, I'm raising up my hands, I . . ."? God bless you, brother. God bless you, sister. God bless you, yeah, you. That's right, everywhere. God bless you, mother, with . . . God bless you, young man. God bless you, little boy. Way back in the back, any standing around back there, would say . . . ?

¹⁷⁹ Raise up your hand, not to me, to God. God bless you, Spanish brother. God bless you, little lady. God bless you, the white lady setting there. Up in the balcony, to my left, yeah all, look up there at the hands along there. Just feel there just a minute, say, "God be merciful to me, a sinner."

¹⁸⁰ God bless you, Spanish lady down here. Balcony to the right, raise up your hands, and say, "Yes, I believe Him right now; I wander around in all kinds of darkness. I really never even knew; I've went to church. Oh, yes, I've put my name on the book. But really to have that hope that I got it, my hand right now, I've never really had that assurance. But now, I'm coming firmly upon the basis of the shed Blood of Jesus and His resurrection power. And that resurrected Spirit is speaking to my heart, and I'm raising my hands right now, to say, 'God, here I raised my hand for the Lifeline.'"

¹⁸¹ Many dozens has raised their hands. Will someone else put up your hand now, that did not raise your hand a few moments ago, anywhere? God bless you up here, brother. God bless you. God bless you there, sister. God bless you back there, brother. God bless you, sister; I see your hand. Someone else? God bless you, brother, back there; I see your hand. Someone else? God bless you, you, you here, the little lady with both hands up. Someone else? The man setting here, God bless you, sir. That's a good way to be healed, is just accept the Lord like that. Someone else? A little boy up here with both hands up, God bless you, honey. Someone else? A lady over here, elderly, with her hand up, yes: "Wasted many years, but I'm coming Home now."

¹⁸² God bless you young man. God bless you over here, brother. Someone else? Remember, when you raise your hand, and mean it from your heart, God is obligated to do it right then. God bless the colored sister setting here. The brother over here with his hand up, the little brown sweater on, God bless you. God bless the lady setting here; that's right, sister.

¹⁸³ Jesus said, "He that heareth My Words, believeth on Him that sent Me, has everlasting Life," right now. God bless you, brother back there, both hands up, right now is receiving Jesus. God bless you, sir. God bless you, lady. God bless you, sir. God bless you, sir, young man there, just in the . . .

184 What did Jesus say? “You have, right now, everlasting Life. He that heareth My Words,” I’ve done my best to bring them to you, “now believeth on Him that sent Me, has everlasting Life and shall never come into condemnation.”

185 God bless you up there, sister, standing by the side of the post, a little Spanish girl. “Hath everlasting Life, shall never perish, never perish. . .” mean it from your heart. God bless you, mother; aged woman; someone has to help her hold her hand up; and you’re coming to the Lord Jesus.

186 Say, “Brother Branham, does. . . what does that mean?” That means you passed from death to Life, right there. God will take care of the rest of it, about giving you the Holy Spirit. Just once mean it in your heart; let Christ come to your heart, then you’ll grow in the grace of God. God will just unfold the thing to you. First get started right. Get down, “Faith, by faith are you saved, through grace, not of works, lest any man should boast.” Nothing you can do, quit doing this, or quit doing that. You just believe; God saves you by grace.

187 God bless you, sister, with your hand up, there. God bless you, little lady back there. And you, you, you, oh, my, that’s right, new ones just putting up their hands everywhere, accepting the Lord Jesus. My, I guess we’re around sixty or seventy now. Someone else raise your hand, that hasn’t raised their hand, and say, “Remember me, God.”

188 God bless you, the little fellow, little lady there with her handkerchief up. Anywhere else before we go to prayer? God bless, I see the man back there, yes in the back, the Spanish brother, back there holding the hand up of another, yeah, I see you. God bless you; God sees you. God bless the little girl there with her hand up, just a child, but coming to the Lord. All right, God bless you over here, sister. Oh, that’s wonderful.

189 Just waiting a few moments, giving the Holy Spirit a time just to speak to the heart. Maybe He’s moving over the audience, knocking at every door. Who was That told you put up your hands? Who was That said that? Jesus said, “No man can come to Me, except My Father draws Him. And all that comes to Me, after My Father has knocked at their heart, all that comes, raises up their hands to the Lifeline, I’ll give them everlasting Life, and I’ll raise them up at the last day.”

190 Someday when the life is gurgling out of your throat, maybe in a automobile accident, maybe by a fever, sickness, or just death coming to you, when you feel the chilly pains coming up your sleeves, your friends weeping, you’ll see that blessed Redeemer standing there with His outstretched arms to take your soul to place it into a new body; a new man, a young man or young woman, never to get old no more, to live in His Presence forever. Because, what you did: just believed and raised up your hand.

¹⁹⁴ Jesus raised from the dead. Oh, my, think that this is the night we're parting now. But you've accepted Christ. We'll meet again where we'll never part, just because that you accepted Him tonight, that means the difference.

¹⁹⁵ Heavenly Father, the great Phoenix meeting is now drawing to a close. And at the end, many, many sinners raised their hands to Thee, upon the teaching of the Word that You said, "He that heareth My Words and believeth on Him that sent Me, has everlasting Life, shall not perish or come into condemnation," be condemned. No more condemned before God, but has accepted Jesus Christ and His suffering in their stead.

¹⁹⁶ Now, Father, sweetly, humbly lead them on, as they hold their hands against the Lifeline, walk towards Glory. Won't You bless them now? Save every one of them, Father. In Thy Kingdom, may I see them and shake their hands. And it be possible, may You be able to review tonight's service for us. They'd say, "Yes, that was the one, there's where . . . that was me, put up my hand."

¹⁹⁷ God say, "Yeah, I saw you. I tugged at your heart. You raised your hand; I accepted you. And now you're My beloved child; come to the joys of life, been prepared for you since the foundation of the world. Enter in to the joys."

¹⁹⁸ We thank Thee, Father. Those who have already come and wanting to be filled with the Holy Spirit, set aside for service, grant it to them also, Lord. Finally at the end of the road, when life's all finished, the great Wedding Supper is set, there that table thousands of miles long, the Blood-washed of all ages setting around there, the King come out, wipe the tears from their eyes, say, "There's no more suffering now; there's no reason to cry now; We're all here; come, ye blessed of My Father."

¹⁹⁹ Until that time, Father, keep them happy in their souls, cleanse them from all uncleanness and unrighteousness. May they walk each day with their sails set towards Glory, bringing others to Thee. For we ask it in Jesus' Name, Thy beloved Son, Who has now called them to everlasting Life. Amen. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

²⁰⁰ Believe with all your heart, with all your strength. Just take all the feeling away that you just imagine, or all the superstitious feeling, just throw it aside. Then just look right straight to God and say, "I believe it with all my heart, solemnly." And watch and see what the Holy Spirit will do.

²⁰¹ Now, all ready? Now, for the glory of God, and for the testimony of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, I take every spirit in the building under my control. Now, be reverent; don't move around, set still, please. Now, this closing night, do me that favor. In Jesus' Name, will you? Just be real reverent, set still. They'll watch me. They won't let me too long in the line, and then . . . because I'm very weak and tired.

²⁰² And I love you all with warmest of Christian love. God bless you. If the anointing strikes me, of course I don't know when they take me, or what happens. And I hope to see you again, right away. Until then I'll be praying for you. God bless you.

²⁰³ All right, lady. Now, if you'll come here just a moment, sister. Now, we are supposingly, I suppose we are strangers to one another. We are. You've seen me, but I mean to . . . not to know you. I—I . . . if I do, I don't recognize it. I don't recognize you. And we just seen one another just like, you'd be in the audience and look back and see me.

²⁰⁴ But to know who you are, where you are, what's happened, that's—that's impossible, isn't it? Only 'less it would be revealed by a spiritual revelation, or a vision, or some way of knowing. I have no more idea what you're here for, than I know what, well, anybody else is here for. See? I don't; but He knows what you're here for. And He can tell me what you're here for; show me what you're here for. I could tell you, if it's for healing of your body then, well, God would . . . could do that by your faith, believing.

²⁰⁵ I see you're a personal worker. So, but if He—if He will let me know what you're here for . . . Now, I'm talking to you just like man to a woman, just like Jesus to the woman at Samaria.

²⁰⁶ Now, to the audience, here's a woman that I don't know. You may know her. Are you from Phoenix here, are you? You're from Phoenix? People out there know her, don't you? Well, I don't know her. I've never seen her in my life. But you know whether this is truth or not. And you know whether I know anything about her or not. I have no way; I don't know the woman, let alone know anything about her.

²⁰⁷ Now, the only way that would be done, if it was done in the Scriptural terms, now take away from the old some kind of a creed you've learned and let's look at the Bible. Jesus said, "The things that I do, shall you also." Now, when He met a woman like this, He begin to talk to her. And the first thing you know, He found just exactly where her trouble was. And in that case, she was a woman that had five husbands. Said, "Go—go, get your husband."

She said, "I don't have any."

Said, "You got five."

²⁰⁸ She said, "I perceive that You're a Prophet." Said, "I know when Messiah cometh, that'll be His sign." See, the sign of the Messiah, to do that. The people today says it's mental telepathy, it's the devil. No wonder we're in the condition we're in. It's the resurrected Lord Jesus, the sign of the Messiah.

But she said, "Who are You?"

He said, "I am He."

²⁰⁹ She run into the city and said, "Come, see." Started a revival in that city, just because of one woman's testimony, Him telling him . . . telling her one thing. And if this ain't perfectly the case, outside of knowing what's wrong with her, tonight, is that right? Everybody recognize that?

²¹⁰ Now, you . . . she's a Phoenix woman, she said. And you all know her. Many of you raised your hands; you know her. Now, the Lord can tell me what's wrong with her. But if she's—if she's here for domestic trouble, financial trouble, or healing, sick, or whatever it is, or for her soul, whatever it might be, God can reveal it. And she'll know whether that's true or not. Then if He knows what was, surely He knows what will be.

²¹¹ Now, everyone be reverent. Now, as I talk to the woman, just to catch her spirit. Now, I'm kind of waiting for you to quieten, if you will. Don't move around. There's all kind of spirit in here tonight, see, moving, sickness I mean. And I see, especially children. Children, it gets to children so easy. So don't—don't . . . Just as I said that, epilepsy begin to pull. And that's right. And that's the thing that . . . As soon as these . . . You—you—you . . .

²¹² I tell you, to know spiritual things, friends, see just how words will change spiritual attitudes and everything. See? Just as he's heard me say that, then epilepsy begin to move in.

213 Now, now I just want to talk to you just a minute, just in order to see your human spirit. Now, if God will. . . You being, you are a Christian believer. And if God will remove, or move in and tell me what you're here for, then you will believe; know, believing it comes from God.

214 The first thing, you have something wrong by eating; it's about a stomach condition. You have a stomach trouble, which is a gastric condition in the stomach because it causes stuff to come in your mouth and things. It's a gastric condition in the stomach.

215 Then you've got a—a arm that's bad. And that's your left arm. And it was crushed by an automobile. That's the truth. You believe now? You believe now? Come here, sister.

Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll bless now. Give to her the desire of her heart, in Jesus Christ's Name, I ask it. Amen. Amen.

216 Have faith, believe with all your heart. Now, we're total strangers to each other too. Now, here's the perfect picture of the Lord Jesus at the well. He was a Jew, and she was a Samaritan: a racial condition, just like today, me being a white man, you a colored woman. But it's. . . Jesus let them know, right quick, it didn't make any difference to God. We're all off of one person. We're all are children of God.

217 But whether Jew, Gentile, white, colored, yellow, brown, it doesn't matter. God, by one Blood, through His Son, Jesus Christ, has bought us, every one. And in that, we become brothers and sisters. Now, me being a stranger to you, do you believe that God will do something for you, as He. . . ?

218 Now, you know I don't know you, do you, lady? I—I. . . We're strangers. But you're—you're suffering with a—a nervous condition. You're nervous, upset. You got a lot of things in your heart, sorrow. You're all broke up about something. I see it getting dark, coming darker. There seems to be somebody standing back in there, but it's a man. And he's weaving sideways; he's coming home. It's your husband; he's a drunkard. And you're here to. . . Have mercy, God. All right. That's true, sister. Come near.

Father, I pray that You'll grant her request, in Jesus Christ's Name. Amen. God bless you.

219 How do you do, sister? I want you to be reverent, everywhere. Please don't move. Now, lady, are we strange to each other? We don't know each other? Total strangers? Well, Jesus Christ the Son of God died to save. . .

220 Got something wrong with your side, haven't you, sister, setting there, right there in front? Got trouble in your side. A real strange thing happened when that lady a few minutes ago was told something about a loved one, because you're praying for a loved one too: That's a unsaved father. I see him standing, and you are praying for him. That's true, isn't it? God bless you, young lady.

Now, there you . . . That two, both them people setting on the end right there, suffering with epilepsy. That's right.

Thou demon, in the Name of Jesus Christ, you leave them, come out of them.

²²¹ You believe now, lady, with all your heart? You believe that Jesus Christ the Son of God is here to make you well? I believe you do. You're, realize that just now, you're in the Presence of Something, don't you, sister? It's His Presence. Isn't it a wonderful feeling to stand in this Presence? Now, if that's right, so the audience will see, raise up your hand; that wonderful consolation of love, like pouring.

²²² You—you are suffering with a trouble in your lungs, a lung trouble. Seems like you had something . . . Did you have rib moved or something, some kind of rib trouble? It's under your . . . Ribs move, yes. I seen them taking or doing something to the ribs.

²²³ And you are . . . got a—a curvature of the spine. And you've got a stomach trouble, 'cause it's pushed over, and they said it got the stomach pushed in the wrong condition. And then you have a hurting in your back. That's the truth. You believe Jesus is here to heal you? Then if that's Him speaking through, then it's not me. Come, let me have my hands upon you.

God, in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, make our sister well and all she asks for, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Have faith; don't doubt.

²²⁵ How do you do, sir. You believe? We are strangers to one another, brother. But Jesus Christ knows both of us. If God will tell me exactly what you're here for, will you accept what you've come for, through Jesus? You will? There's a shadow of death hangs over you. And that's a cause in your stomach. And that's a cancer in the stomach. You believe now, that Jesus Christ is going to make you well? You accept it right now upon the basis of His shed Blood? Then go eat.

In Jesus Christ's Name, may the devil leave my brother. Amen.

²²⁶ Have faith; don't doubt. Jesus said, "If thou canst believe . . ." That's the way, little fellow. Amen. That Indian woman setting on the end out there had her head down praying just then, she's got a comb in her hair. The Angel of the Lord, that Light, hangs over the woman. She's suffering with hay fever. That's right, Indian lady. Jesus Christ make you whole.

²²⁷ Say, your friend setting next to you, that other Indian woman there, she's suffering with a head trouble. Put your hand over on her too, that she may be made well also. Raise up your hand there, lady, and receive your healing through Jesus Christ the Son of God. Amen. There it goes: healed. Dark streak of blackness leaving, moving out; Something white shoving it. It's over. Have faith.

²²⁸ Is this the patient? You believe me, lady, as God's servant, with all your heart? I don't know you, never seen you. But your life, you couldn't hide now, because I've contacted your spirit, through Jesus Christ. You're here for a worthy thing. You're a woman that's barren and want children. You want me to lay my hands on you, that you'll receive a child.

Heavenly Father, give unto this woman the desire of her heart. I bless her, as Your servant, in the Name of Your Son, the Lord Jesus. Amen.

²²⁹ Have faith. Don't doubt. You want to get over that arthritis, setting right back there? Raise up; your faith healed you, sister. That's right, raise up, show your hands up in the air, let the people see that you're healed. Absolutely, you're free from it now. Amen. Your faith makes you whole. Amen. Have faith in God; don't doubt.

²³⁰ Come here, lady. You believe? I'm a stranger to you. We do not know each other, I suppose, but Jesus Christ knows both of us. Spirits are begging for help. I. . . Just a moment, lady. Us being strangers to each other, not never seeing each other, if I, if the Holy Spirit, rather, through me, would tell just what your trouble is, would you believe it? And you'd believe it come from God?

²³¹ Will the audience believe it comes from God? Now, course more I'd talk to you, more It would say, but just so It says. I see something around your arm. It's high blood pressure, you have. And also you have a choking spirit. It's a goiter in your throat, choking, inward goiter. That's the truth. You're not from this country. You've come from way in the east. You've come from Grandview, Tennessee. That's right. That shock you? Your name's Miss Lily Edwards, too. That's right. Now, go home and be well in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Have faith.

²³² How do you do? The first thing to say to you, my friend, is your—your life with God. You're not. . . you ain't pleased in yourself the way you're walking. You want a little closer walk with the Lord. That's right. I see you ask Him in prayer. Then I see you've got a growth. And the growth is growing. And the growth is in the stomach. Isn't that true?

²³³ You want a closer walk with God? You want to be healed? Then believe that What's talking to you (not your brother), the Lord Jesus Christ, to give it to you. Do you do it? Then in the Name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, receive what you ask for. Amen.

²³⁴ You're near the Kingdom, sister. Lady. . . (This the woman, this the patient?) We're strangers to each other, I suppose. I don't know you, but God knows you. You're a believer. You're not standing here for yourself; you're standing for a friend. And you've just received some kind of a message from that friend. And they're going to be operated on in the morning for cancer. And that's near a big lake or some- . . . it's near Chicago, Illinois. That's right.

God, in the Name of the Lord Jesus, grant the healing of whatever she asks for, through Jesus' Name.

²³⁵ Lord Jesus can heal heart trouble just same as He can heal anything. You believe that? You believe you will get it now? In Jesus' Name, go and receive it. Amen.

²³⁷ You believe? You believe God will heal you of this anemia condition? You believe you can go home, be made well of this anemic condition? God bless you. Go, and receive what you ask for, in Jesus' Name.

²³⁸ All right, come lady. See you limping when you come, knees. No it isn't, you haven't got a broken hip; it's arthritis that's bothering you. You believe you're . . . Jesus Christ is going to make you well? Go, and be made well, in Jesus' Name.

²³⁹ Will you come, lady? You believe? You want to get over that back trouble and kidney trouble? You believe Jesus makes you well? Then go, and Jesus Christ heal you and make you completely well. Amen.

Your arthritis was healed when you was setting right down there, sir, tonight. You don't have it anymore.

²⁴⁰ All right, as you were setting out there looking at me tonight, right down there, there's a real cool thing went through your stomach; the ulcer left then. You're healed.

Come. How do you do? Heart trouble is gone, brother. Go, rejoicing and praising God. Believe with all your heart.

Eyes and stomach, but Jesus Christ makes you well.

Have faith. Just a minute.

Don't fear; your kidney trouble and everything's gone from you, lady. Go, believing.

Stomach trouble, anything, God can heal it all, can't He? Make you well, heal you perfectly.

In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I pray the prayer for my brother. Amen.

So much . . . Look, it's just everywhere. Look, it's just hitting everywhere.

²⁴¹ You got heart trouble, lady. Everyone with heart trouble, stand on your feet just a minute. See what I told you? How you going to discern? It's just coming everywhere. Stand here just a minute. Believe with all your heart now. Stand here and . . .

Remain standing a minute.

²⁴² Look here, lady; got TB. Everyone with TB, stand on your feet just a minute. Jump up real quick, TB cases. Be—be faithful; believe with all your heart. Lungs, lungs, it keeps moving. That's all right, sir. You stand up anyhow. You haven't got TB, but you have got pneumonia in your lungs. That's right, standing right there. That's right, you. Stand still.

²⁴³ This man laying right here's got pneumonia in his lungs, on this stretcher. Stand up, sir, Jesus Christ make you well. The rest of you stand up a minute. Get up.

O God, in the Name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, I bring these sick and afflicted people to You.

I rebuke every devil that's bound the people, TB, everything, all these crippled, sick, afflicted.

God, in Jesus' Name, take it out.

Leave them, come out and leave all these believers.

Stand up on your feet everywhere, and be made well.
