A large crowd of people, including men, women, and children, are gathered in a courtyard. Many of them have their hands raised in the air, suggesting a moment of praise or worship. The scene is framed by large green leaves in the foreground, and a stone wall with an arched doorway is visible in the background. The overall atmosphere is one of joy and community.

welcome

Hi, and welcome to this issue of Cub Corner Magazine. In this issue we want to teach you two words: "influence" and "contagious."

All day long, our minds get pounded with influences. Some of them, like the Holy Spirit, are good ones; others are bad ones. But good and bad alike, they are always there. Remember the story of the Indian Chief that said he had two dogs talking to him? He said the dogs constantly fought in his head. One told him to do good things, and the other told him to do bad things. When asked which one wins the fight, the chief replied, "Depends on which one Chief feeds the most."

That Indian Chief realized that he was being influenced by good and bad things, and it was up to him to decide which one to listen to. I hope that this magazine will be one of the good things that influences you.

Once you do your best to get rid of all of the bad influences in your life, then you need to become "contagious." It is kind of like being sick, but with a really good sickness. It makes you feel good, makes you act better, and best of all it gets you closer to God. You can pass this condition on to others around you by talking about godly things and keeping the bad influences as far away as you can. You need to be contagious for God!

We hope you enjoy this issue of Cub Corner Magazine,

God bless you,

Brother Joseph

Here are two words that you might not know:

INFLUENCE AND CONTAGIOUS

Both can be either good or bad things.

influence

"Influence" is when something that someone does or says, affects another person. Try this, go give your mom or dad a huge hug and tell them that you love them. Watch the way they change. Your behavior "influenced" them. Wow, positive influence is pretty powerful!

That was an example of being a good influence. You changed everyone's mood by being kind and loving to your parent. But what about places that aren't kind or loving? They have an influence also, and even if you don't like it, they influence you too. Let's say you go somewhere that has worldly music playing in the background; maybe it's the grocery store. Even though you don't like that music, it is still trying to influence you. If you don't do something to keep it out of your mind, that bad music will have an influence on you.

Influence is something that is very important to think about. Are you influencing others in a good way? Make a list of people who you would like to influence, then make a list of people or things that influence you, either good or bad.

"Contagious" is a word that doctors and nurses use a lot. It means that you have something that you could spread to others, like chickenpox. Have you ever gotten sick from someone else? They were contagious when you were around them, and you got what they had.

Your attitude is contagious. If everyone in a room is bored and grumpy, and you come in upbeat and happy, it won't be long before either they are happy with you, or you are grumpy with them. You will either catch what they have, or they will get what you have.

Your spirit is contagious, and so are the spirits of other people. If you spend time with Holy Spirit-filled family and friends, they will rub off on you, and influence you in a good way. But remember, worldly people are contagious too, so you need to do everything you can to protect yourself from the sickness that the world carries.

If you bring the Holy Spirit with you wherever you go, you will influence people in a good way, because you are contagious. Others will get what you have. If you want more of the Holy Spirit, you should hang out with those kids who are contagious with It. You will certainly get more of It from them, and they will get more of It from you.

YOU KNOW

INFLUENCE IS IMPORTANT,

SO MAKE A LIST OF WHO AND WHAT INFLUENCES YOU,
AND WHO YOU INFLUENCE.

READ THE NOAH STORY. THEN FIND THE WHITE WORDS IN THE WORD SEARCH.

A long time ago, our Holy God spoke to His prophet Noah. He told him to build a huge ark, because He was going to flood the earth with rain. So Noah and his sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth worked and worked until, finally, the ark was finished. Then Noah and his sons took their families to hide them in the ark they had built. Once it was time, God closed the door of the ark, and it started to rain. Noah and his family rode out God's fierce wrath safely inside of the ark until the end of the great storm. Finally, the sky cleared, and the water started to dry. Noah released a raven and a dove, to see if there was any dry land yet. But the dove had to come back, because it didn't have any dry land to rest on. The second time he let it go, the dove brought back an olive branch as a sign that there was dry land. Noah and his family were saved! After that, God made a promise to Noah that He would never flood the earth again, and He put a rainbow in the sky as a sign of His promise.

PEPPERMINT UDGE

Here is an awesome Christmas recipe from Sister Joy! After tasting it, we think she should change her name to enJoy!

Thank You,
Sister (en)Joy!

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 cups, milk chocolate chips
- 1 cup, semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 1 (14 oz.) can, sweetened condensed milk
- Dash of salt
- 1/2 tsp. peppermint extract
- 1/4 cup crushed peppermint candy cane

Melt everything together except the peppermint candy cane. Put crushed peppermint candy on wax paper in bottom of a 8 x 8 square pan. Pour chocolate mixture on top and refrigerate.

CARAMEL APPLES

INGREDIENTS:

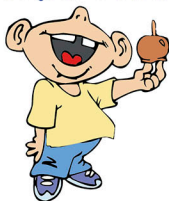

- 6 apples, 1 (14 ounce) package of individually wrapped caramels (unwrapped), 2 tablespoons milk, chopped nuts (optional).

Butter a baking sheet and place your apples on it. Remove the stem from each apple and press a craft stick into the top.

Place caramels and milk in a microwave-safe bowl, and microwave 2 minutes, stirring once. Allow it to cool a little bit, but not too much.

Roll each apple quickly in caramel sauce until it covers the whole apple. Quickly roll it on a pan of chopped nuts, if you want them.

Bring them in for us to enjoy.

CC ADVENTURES

WOW, NICE HAT!

YEAH, I MET SOME KIDS WHILE I WAS SHOPPING WITH MY MOM AT THE MALL. THEY ALL HAD THESE TYPES OF HATS ON. COOL, HUH?

YEAH, COOL. YOU WANNA GO RIDE BIKES?

YEAH, THAT'S PERFECT! I TOLD MY NEW FRIENDS I WOULD MEET THEM AT THE PARK THIS AFTERNOON. LET'S RIDE THERE.

AS THE TWO FRIENDS RODE ALONG, ALL MONKEY COULD TALK ABOUT WAS HOW COOL HIS NEW FRIENDS WERE.

THEY GET TO PLAY VIDEO GAMES FOR AS LONG AS THEY WANT!

THEY STAY OUT AS LONG AS THEY WANT WHEN THEY RIDE BIKES.

THEY GET THE MOST AWESOME, SWEETER-IFFIC, MEGA-UBER, SUPER COOL SHOES, EVER!

~GIGGLES~
MEGA TOOBER OOBER WOOPER WHAT?

CUB DIDN'T REALLY KNOW WHY, BUT HE FELT REALLY UNEASY AND NERVOUS. MAYBE HE WAS SECRETLY JEALOUS THAT MONKEY HAD MET NEW FRIENDS. IT COULD HAVE BEEN THAT HE WAS WORRIED ABOUT LOSING HIS FRIEND, BUT HE DIDN'T THINK THAT WAS IT. HE FELT MORE WORRIED ABOUT MONKEY, THAN HE DID JEALOUS OF THE NEW GUYS.

WASSUP, MUGGY MUGGY MONKEY?

SUP?
BUG?

SUP, BUG?

AS SOON AS CUB SAW MONKEY'S NEW FRIENDS, HE REALIZED WHY HE DIDN'T LIKE THE SITUATION. THIS GANG WAS NOTHING LIKE CUB OR MONKEY. THEY LOOKED LIKE THEY WERE TRYING THEIR HARDEST TO BE DIFFERENT, BUT THEY REALLY JUST LOOKED LIKE ALL OF THE OTHER WORLDLY KIDS. CUB KNEW RIGHT AWAY THAT THIS WASN'T GOOD.

WASUP, RICKY?
SUP, ELVIS?

YOU BUGS WANNA JOIN US?

WE ARE HEADED DOWN TO HANG OUT AT THE MALL.

NO THANKS!

OK!

IT HURT CUB'S FEELINGS WHEN MONKEY LEFT, BUT EVEN MORE THAN THAT, HE WAS WORRIED ABOUT HIS FRIEND. HE DIDN'T WANT MONKEY TO TURN INTO A "RICKY."

BUG? WHY WOULD THEY CALL US BUGS?

THE NEXT DAY...

SUP BUG?

HEY MONKEY.

MONKEY, I DON'T KNOW ABOUT THESE NEW GUYS. THEY ARE NOT LIKE US. THEY SURE DON'T DRESS LIKE BELIEVERS... I JUST DON'T GET A GOOD FEELING AROUND THEM.

THAT'S WHERE YOU'RE WRONG CUB! WE ARE SUPPOSED TO LET OUR LIGHT SHINE. IT'S OUR JOB TO BE FRIENDS WITH PEOPLE WHO DON'T BELIEVE, SO WE CAN INFLUENCE THEM. GET ME, HOMIE? DON'T BE JEALOUS, CUB. I'D NEVER FORGET A BUG LIKE YOU.

CUB DIDN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO. HE DECIDED TO PRAY ABOUT IT.

...LORD, SHOULD WE HAVE WORLDLY FRIENDS, LIKE MONKEY SAID?

WHENEVER CUB HAS A QUESTION HE KNOWS HE CAN FIND THE ANSWER ON THE TAPES!

CLICK-

"USUALLY IF A MAN'S GOING TO BE A BELIEVER, HE'S GOT TO SEPARATE HIMSELF FROM HIS WORLDLY FRIENDS, ALL THE--THE PEOPLE. YOKE YOURSELF OUT UP FROM AMONGST UNBELIEVERS. THEY'LL ONLY CALL YOU BACK INTO THE WORLD AGAIN." - 56-0723

NOW I KNOW WE SHOULDN'T HANG AROUND THAT RAT AND CAT! I NEED TO TALK TO MONKEY.

SUP, BUG?

OF COURSE I WOULD!

SUPER! I'VE GOT SOMETHING FOR YOU TO HEAR. COME WITH ME...

IF YOU HEARD BROTHER BRANHAM SAY SOMETHING THAT YOU THOUGHT WOULD HELP ME OUT, WOULD YOU TELL ME ABOUT IT?

MONKEY KNEW ALL ALONG THAT RICKY AND ELVIS WERE BAD INFLUENCES. BUT WHEN HE HEARD BROTHER BRANHAM SAY IT, HE KNEW HE HAD TO STOP HANGING AROUND THEM. MONKEY WAS VERY THANKFUL TO HAVE A GOOD FRIEND LIKE CUB.

THANKS A LOT, BUG... I MEAN CUB.

HA HA... ANYTHING FOR A GOOD FRIEND.

THE END...

Caroline was so very excited as her mommy tucked her into bed. It was Christmas Eve, the most exciting night of the year; she knew that tomorrow would bring tons of fun, and most importantly, PRESENTS! How would she ever fall asleep? She just laid there with her eyes wide open, thinking about what would be in those wonderful, colorful, beautiful boxes.

Then suddenly, it was time! She found herself running down the hallway towards her prizes under the tree, but something was terribly wrong. It was quiet in the house. Where were all the lights? Where were the PRESENTS?

"MOMMY!" Caroline yelled.

Her mom came running. "What's wrong, honey?" Caroline couldn't believe her ears, "What's wrong? What's wrong?" she repeated. "Where is all the Christmas stuff? Where's the lights? Where are MY PRESENTS?" she exclaimed.

Her mommy gave her a confused look. "Your presents?" she asked.

"Yes, it's Christmas!" Caroline answered.

"What's Christmas?" her confused mommy asked.

Now Caroline was really confused. "What's Christmas?" Was she really asking her what Christmas was?

Really, Mommy?" Caroline asked. "It's when all the kids get presents from their family, and everyone gets together and celebrates."

"Celebrates what?" her mommy asked.

"Celebrates Christmas!" Caroline snapped back.

"I don't understand." her mommy said.

"OK, mommy, listen. It is a day when we celebrate the birth of Jesus. It is a very important a Christmas day." Caroline couldn't believe she was having to explain this to her mommy, but things were about to get even more strange. The next words her mommy said were the weirdest words that Caroline had ever heard:

"Who's Jesus?"

"I can't believe my ears! 'Who's Jesus? Who's Jesus?' How could this be?" Caroline started to cry. "Mommy, how could you ask me Who Jesus is?" Caroline looked at her mommy through her tear-filled eyes. "Mommy?" she whispered, "You taught me Who Jesus is. Don't you remember? He is God, He died on the cross for us. He forgave us of our sins."

Caroline had already forgotten about her missing presents. She was so sad that her mommy had forgotten about Jesus, she couldn't think of anything else.

Just then she heard a door open, and she saw the beautiful, smiling faces of her mommy and daddy looking at her. "Good morning ,sweetheart," her mommy said.

"Huh? What's going on? Ohhh, it was just a dream!" Caroline said to her parents.

"What is it Caroline? Are you OK?" her mom asked.

"Everything is OK, Mommy. Let's just not forget about Jesus today, alright?" Caroline begged.

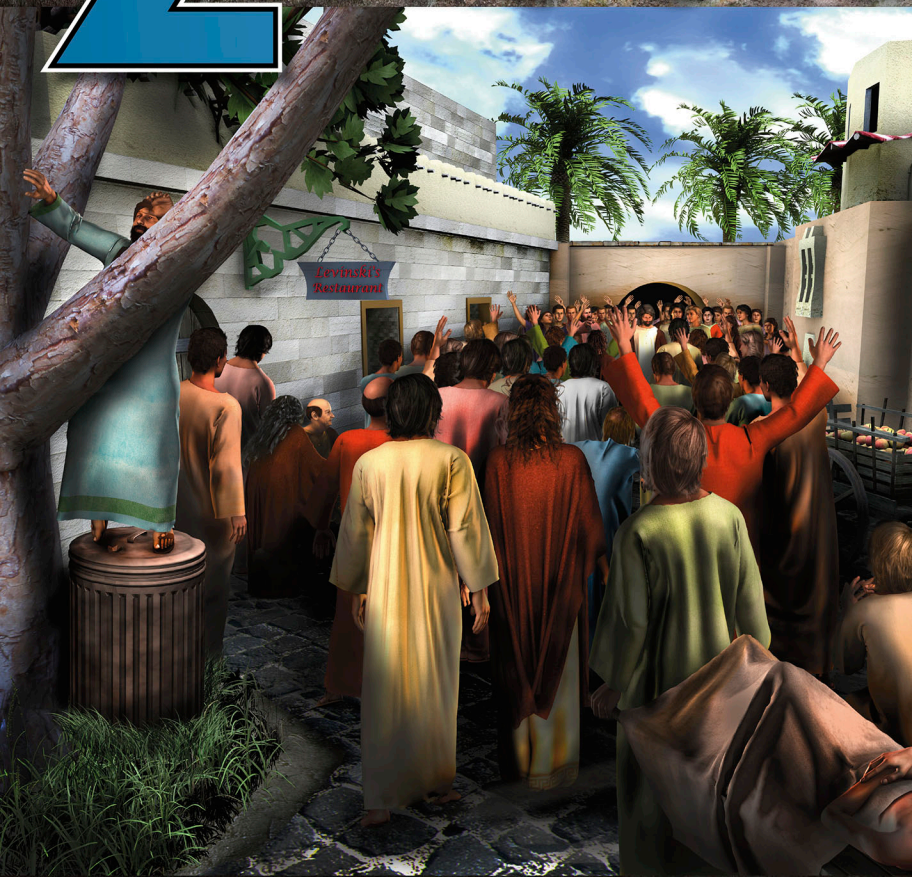

So young Caroline finally realized that although all the fun and presents of Christmas are really cool, that's not what it's all about. It really is about Jesus. Even though we know that December 25 is not the day when Jesus was really born, it is still a good time to thank God for sending Him to the earth for us.

Throughout the world, there are many, many people who have never heard about Jesus! They don't know what He did for them. They have never heard the story of Him dying on the cross, and raising again. This Christmas, let's all remember to pray that somehow God will find a way to let those people finally get to hear the greatest news of all time. The news that Jesus has forgiven them of their sins, and He is waiting for them to come to Him!

Story

ZACCHAI

AEUS

Zacchaeus was having a miserable night. He was restless and couldn't sleep. All night long he was twisting and rolling in bed, because he knew Jesus was to pass that way the next morning.

You see, Zacchaeus wasn't a believer in Jesus, but his wife, Rebekah, was. Rebekah knew that Jesus was the Messiah, and she wanted her husband to believe with her. So what did Rebekah do? She started praying.

The next morning, Zacchaeus slipped out of bed real early and put on his very best clothes. Rebekah looked up from under the covers and saw him grooming his beard and combing his hair. She knew right then, God was working on Zacchaeus, so she just pretended to be asleep and kept praying.

Zacchaeus knew that his wife was "mixed up" with this so-called Prophet, and his pastor told him there was "no such a thing." Zacchaeus was going to find Jesus and give Him a piece of his mind, not realizing that his wife's influence was causing him to do it.

Zacchaeus went up to where Hallelujah Avenue crosses Glory Street. He was just a little bitty fellow, about 4 feet tall so he found a garbage can and shinnied (climbed) up in a sycamore tree. This way he could see Jesus to find out if He was really a Prophet. Even though the other businessmen were making fun of him, he was determined to see Jesus. God was dealing with him. What was it? Rebekah's prayers were being answered.

Zacchaeus got all the limbs and pulled them in around him, disguising himself real good. After a while he heard a noise coming. It was Jesus and the crowd following Him. Zacchaeus watched as Jesus prayed for a little sick girl, and she was healed. He started to change his mind. "Is He a Prophet?" He asked himself.

When Jesus got right under the tree, He stopped, looked up, and said, "Zacchaeus, come down. I'm going home with you, for dinner today." Jesus knew he was up there. He knew what his name was. Little Zacchaeus was touched, and he now believed. Rebekah's prayers had been answered. Her influence and prayers made her husband seek to find the truth, and your influence and prayers can do the same for your family or friends.

"You see, when you go to praying for somebody, something goes to taking place." 64-0620B

Lydia ^A CONTAGIOUS CHRISTIAN

How did you come to believe this Message? Many of you heard about It from your family. Maybe your mom and dad, or grandma and grandpa believed this Message long before you were even born. Your parents want what's best for you, and they know this Message is the Truth. That's why they tell you about It, and do their best to influence you in a good way. That same thing happened in the Bible times.

Not long after Jesus had risen from the grave and appeared to His disciples, there were a group of women gathered together on the banks of a river. Among them was a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple. Today we think of purple as just a color, but in those days, purple dye was very hard to make. Only very rich and powerful people could afford to buy purple colored garments, and many of them probably bought them from Lydia.

Just like Brother Branham brought the Message for this day, the apostle Paul was bringing It for his time, and Lydia was about to hear It! She must have come expecting something special to happen that day, because as soon as she heard Paul, God opened her heart, and she believed his Message. She knew that every word Paul was saying was the truth. In fact, she believed it so much, that she was baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Then something else very special happened. Just like many parents do with the Message today, she told her family about what she had heard. She became contagious, and her family believed because of her testimony. They were baptized too!

Lydia wasn't the only one who heard about Jesus and became contagious. Remember the woman at the well? She met Jesus and told her whole city about Him! How about Philip, running to get Nathanael after he met Jesus? There are many, many examples of people who heard the Word of God and then became contagious to those around them.

WERE CONTAGIOUS FOR JESUS. LIST THEM HERE:

how to make YUCKY SLIME

THINGS TO DO:

STEP ONE

Pour 1/2 cup of glue into a bowl.

STEP TWO

Pour 1/2 cup of water into a bowl.

STEP THREE

Mix the water and glue together, and add a couple of drops of food coloring, if you like.

STEP FOUR

In a separate container, mix 1 teaspoon of borax with 1 cup of water, stir until dissolved. Borax is a common laundry detergent booster.

STEP FIVE

Combine the two bowls together and stir until a thick slime is formed.

THINGS TO NOT DO:

- Do not get the slime in the carpet.
- Do not eat the slime.
- Do not get the slime in your sister's hair.
- Do not get your sister's hair in the slime.
- Do not let your dog eat the slime.
- Do not let the slime eat your dog.
- Do not lose the slime.
- Do not feed the slime.
- Do not yell at the slime.
- Do not rely on the slime for brilliant conversation.

HOW TO MAKE A Butterfly

YOU WILL NEED:

CRAFT STICK (OR POPSICLE STICK)

CONSTRUCTION PAPER

MARKERS

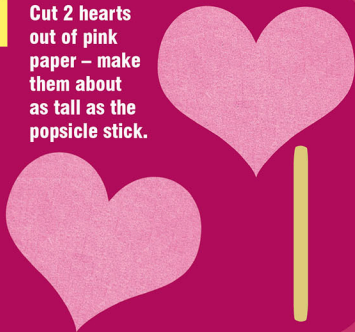

CHENILLE STEM OR "PIPE CLEANERS"

GLUE

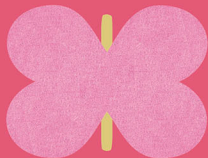

SCISSORS

ALL OF THESE ITEMS CAN BE FOUND AT A CRAFT STORE

- 1 Cut 2 hearts out of pink paper – make them about as tall as the popsicle stick.

- 2 Trim off the bottom of each heart and overlap them on the underside of the popsicle stick.

- 3 Glue the overlapped bottoms of the hearts together, then glue them to the craft stick. The two large hearts will be the butterfly's wings.

- 4 Cut two 2-inch pieces from a chenille stem and glue them to the back of the popsicle stick. These will be the butterfly's antennae!

- 5 Use a marker to draw a face on your butterfly.

Use your imagination on how to decorate the wings. Cut out smaller hearts, use glitter, or whatever else sounds fun.

the weather

"You go rabbit hunting, watch them rabbits right down under the grass, sitting way back. Watch out for cold weather, no matter what the paper says. God's give them instinct. He made them with instinct."

53-0513

The strongest wind gust ever recorded was in Mt. Washington, New Hampshire. A surface windspeed of 231 miles per hour was recorded on April 12, 1934.

50-0819

"One day, my dad and I were plowing, and the horses begin to snort. I said, 'What's the matter with them, dad?'"

He said, 'Son, there's a storm coming.'

I said, 'Oh, my. Dad, look at how clear it is.'

He said, 'God has so provided, that horses has an instinct. They can smell storms for miles away.'" lightning

Believe it or not, a park ranger in Virginia was struck by lightning seven times!

When you see the flash of a lightning bolt, you can start counting seconds until you hear thunder. Then divide that number of seconds by 5 to see how far away the lightning struck. If it takes 10 seconds for the thunder to roll in, the lightning struck about 2 miles away.

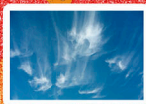

EVER WONDER ABOUT CLOUDS?

The highest Cirrus clouds reach about 3.5 miles in the air. This supernatural sign from God was 26 miles high!

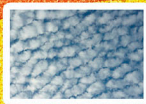

SUPERNATURAL CLOUDS

Cirrus clouds are wispy and very high in the air. If you are seeing more of these, a warm front may be moving in.

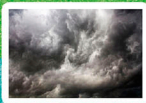

HIGH CLOUDS

"Alto cumulus" clouds are usually puffy (like marshmallows, mmmmm.) If you see them in the morning, good chance you'll see rain in the afternoon.

MIDDLE CLOUDS

These "nimbostratus" clouds mean business. They almost certainly bring rain or snow, and lots of it.

LOW CLOUDS

TEMPERATURE

The HOTTEST outside temperature ever recorded was in Libya. It was 136 F!

The coldest outside temperature ever recorded was in Antarctica. It was -128.6 F!

the Influence of our Prophet

NOW THAT YOU KNOW a little more about influence and being contagious, let's think about how Brother Branham has been an influence and contagious in our lives.

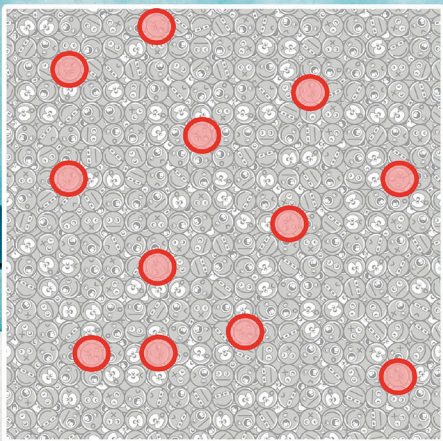

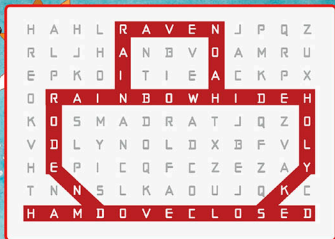

You're reading through this magazine right now because Brother Branham has had an influence on your life. Your parents were influenced by Brother Branham because he brought a Message that was the Truth, and he was contagious to share It with the world. Then your parents were contagious and taught It to you, so that you could be influenced by God's prophet also. Now you listen to the same Message and believe It for yourself.

All of the Cub Corner magazines are inspired and influenced by the Message of the hour. We print these magazines so that we can influence thousands of kids with Brother Branham's Message. It's kind of like dropping one stone in the water, and it creates thousands of ripples. God dropped Brother Branham on the earth to bring us a Message and prepare His Bride, and now there are thousands upon thousands of people who believe It, like you. Brother Branham was so contagious with the Word of God, that he led millions of people to the Lord Jesus Christ. We are some of those people! Now we need to be contagious with It, so that we can lead others to the Lord, also. And the best way to be contagious and a good influence, is to let others see God living in you.

Do you know that if God didn't use Brother Branham to influence us to believe this Message, then we couldn't be part of the Bride of Christ? Wow! That means if you can influence someone else to truly believe this Message, then they have a chance to be part of the Bride, too! So we should be contagious with this Message and spread It to everyone that we can.

Remember to always be a good influence, like a real, true Christian. This will make you contagious, and people will want to be like you, because you're like Christ.
