GOOD VERSUS EVIL

WELCOME!

Greetings my friends,

Can you believe that Cub Corner Magazine has been around for four years! I can't believe it. It seems like it was just yesterday the Lord laid it upon my heart to start this magazine. It has been a ton of fun making them, and if the Lord is willing, we hope to have many more years of fun ahead. I hope that all of you have enjoyed it as much as we have.

In this issue of Cub Corner Magazine we will try to show you the difference between good and evil. David loved God, and trusted in Him, but Goliath trusted in his own strength and armor. We all know how that story ends. :)

Moses and Pharaoh were two more examples of good vs. evil. Moses trusted in God and Pharaoh trusted in his education and power. Again, God won!

Since the garden of Eden there has been good vs. evil, and there are many, many stories that could be told to show the difference. We hope this magazine will help you to understand God a little better, and to learn a little bit more about the devil and his evil tricks.

Your friend,
Brother Joseph

Cub Corner is a ministry of Voice Of God Recordings, focused on children 12 years and younger. We are devoted to helping parents build a strong Christian foundation in their children, through the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dear Cub Corner,

I am really enjoying the Cub Corner magazines. I enjoy looking for the little animals on every page, reading the stories, the games, doing the quizzes, and reading about the animal in the back.

I like all of the articles. None are "blah." Just keep it the way that it is. I love Cub Corner Magazines.

Love,
Josiah

Hi Josiah. We know that we have at least one fan for sure! Thanks a lot for the nice things you said.

Dear Cub Corner,

I love the Cub Corner magazines. Thank you for sending them to Australia for free. The Cub Corner magazines are wonderful. Can you please make the Tape Quiz area a bit bigger to write the answers?

Thanks. Also could you PLEASE keep sending the coins to the 15 year olds plus, as well... I love them!!! I love the facts, stories, and games - they are wonderful.

God bless you.

Your brother in Christ,
Joshua

Sure thing mate, we are glad to send them down under. Thanks for reading them for free. Sometimes it's hard to find room for the answers on the Tape Quiz page. A lot of people write the answers on another piece of paper, or they just write really small. But we will try harder in the future to make more room (sorry about this issue), it is a very good idea.

We hope you like this issue as much as the other ones!

P.S. We think Australians are super cool.

our Bible story

We are having a hard time finishing our story. Use the words from the Bible to fill in the missing words in our story.

1st Samuel Chapter 17

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shamhah.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

Use the words you discovered to help us finish our story.

Goliath was with the _____ as he stood there and challenged the Israelites. He was a huge man, with really strong armor. He had a helmet of _____ and a coat of _____. He must have seemed unstoppable!

But then one day, David, the son of _____, heard Goliath boast. David went to King _____ to tell him he wanted to fight.

When it was time, David picked up _____ stones and _____ one into Goliath's _____. Goliath _____ right on his face, and David showed that faith in God is stronger than any armor.

RAINBOW CRAFT

How would you like to brighten up your room with your very own rainbow? Follow these easy steps and you can make one right now!

YOU WILL NEED:

- a paper plate
- a pencil or pen
- crayons or markers
- cotton balls
- glue

STEP 1

Turn the plate upside down and draw a half circle and lines to the outside of the plate.

STEP 2

Cut out on your lines, and paint rainbow colors on your arc. Use the back side of the plate; the back side usually doesn't have a coating on it, so its easier to color or paint.

STEP 3

Glue cotton balls to both ends, and...

YOU'RE DONE!

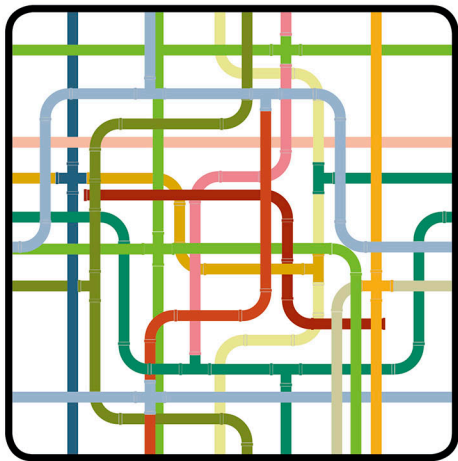

YAY!!!

Now find somewhere to display your beautiful rainbow. In Genesis the 9th chapter, you can read about when God made His own rainbow and put it in the sky for Noah to see.

LET'S SEE WHO WINS...

RAMESSES

PHARAOH OF EGYPT

I am Rameses, Pharaoh and ruler over the greatest nation on earth.

I have the greatest armies, the greatest cities, and the greatest riches of all the kingdoms of the world.

All men obey and fear me. Whatsoever I say, that is law. If men refuse to obey what I say, then I destroy them or make them my slaves. There is no man or god that can stand before my armies and my gods, at least I thought there wasn't...

In all my greatness, my throne was just challenged and defeated by ONE Hebrew slave by the name of Moses. He was once in the Pharaoh's palace with me, and would have been the next Pharaoh of Egypt, but he killed a man and fled like a coward to the desert.

One day, after 40 years of hiding in the desert, this "Moses" showed up in my palace with his brother, Aaron. This sure wasn't the great Moses I had known that could once teach the Egyptian scholars. What a pitiful sight he was. He was dressed in smelly shepherd's garments and carrying a little wooden staff. Yet he demanded me, Pharaoh of Egypt, to let his people go at the command of his God. "Ha!" I said to this Moses, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey His Voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go."

Then he tries a cheap magicians' trick, and has his brother Aaron turn his rod into a snake. "My magicians can do that cheap trick!" But something strange happened when my magicians turned their rods into snakes. Moses' serpent ate all of theirs! Yeah it was some trick, but that meant nothing to me, Pharaoh.

Moses came back the next morning and performed another one of his tricks when I went out to the water of the Nile. Because I would not hear the Lord God of the Hebrews and let his people go, he said he would smite the waters and they would turn to blood. Sure enough, Moses told Aaron to smite the waters with his rod, and they turned to blood. I was a little shocked at first, but then my magicians of Egypt came and did the same thing with their enchantments. "Ha, why should I let your people go if my magicians can do the same as your God?" I just turned and walked away.

We went 7 days with waters of blood in Egypt, just like Moses said would happen, but the blood finally went away and my kingdom was back to normal again; but not for long. As soon as the blood was gone, here came Moses again with another one of his messages from his God, "Thus saith the LORD, Let My people go, that they may serve Me. And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs." No Hebrew and his God was about to scare me, Pharaoh, into letting MY slaves go. No sooner than Moses spoke for the frogs to come, it happened! There were frogs everywhere! My magicians came and did the same things with their enchantments, but they couldn't make them go away. Finally I called for Moses to seek the Lord about taking the frogs away, but I still wasn't about to let the Hebrew slaves go free.

This was a mistake. The God of Moses was proving over and over that His Words come to pass. Next, Moses called for lice, then there were flies, then all my cattle died at the command of the Lord God. Still, my heart turned more and more against Moses and his God. No man or God would tell Pharaoh what to do. Those Hebrews were my slaves!

"My kingdom was falling apart because of one man with a staff in his hand."

Moses came again and called for locusts to cover the land of Egypt. I knew by now to start watching for the things that Moses said would happen. Sure enough, the locusts came and devoured the country. Next, his God brought such darkness upon my land that you could feel it, and see nothing for three days.

I had enough, but still I refused to let the children of Israel go free. This was the greatest mistake of all. The worst plague came upon my people, and all of our first-born children were killed that night by the Death Angel, even my own son. I finally realized that I was defeated. No man or army could fight against the Lord God of the Hebrews. I let the slaves go free to serve their God. Moses, one man, had taken over my entire kingdom with His God. How could this be? I was conquered.

STATS RAMESES PHARAOH OF EGYPT

HIS TRUST

Trusted in his power and might. He had everything the world could offer.

MIGHTY ARMY

From a worldly standpoint he had a huge army. The whole world feared Egypt.

KNOWLEDGE

He was trained in the way of the Egyptians and raised to be ruler of the land.

Moses

I am Moses, the son of Amram and Jochebed. I was born at a time when my people, the children of Israel, were in bondage. My father cried and prayed every night for God to send them a deliverer.

Then, God sent them me.

I was told by my mother that I was born a proper child, a prophet and deliverer to the children of Israel. She told me she put me in the Nile River as a baby to save me from the Egyptians. I was found and raised by Pharaoh's daughter, in Pharaoh's palace, and I was trained in all the mighty ways of the Egyptians. But my mother was able to teach me of the true and living God while I was still a little boy.

As I got older, I became heir to the throne of Egypt. I was to be the next Pharaoh! I thought this was how God would use me to deliver His people, but I was wrong. I ran from Egypt and hid in the desert. I became a shepherd. Then I met God.

“One day in a burning bush, God spoke to me.”

He taught me more on that day than I learned in 40 years in Pharaoh's palace. He told me He had heard the cry of His people, and that I was to deliver them.

God sent me back to Egypt with a staff in my hand to take over the greatest nation on earth. How was this possible? Pharaoh had the most powerful army in the world, and I had a stick. But God proved that He was with me, and that I had the greatest weapon of all: HIS WORD.

I took my staff, and my brother Aaron, and we marched to Pharaoh's palace and said, "Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let My people go!"

Pharaoh refused to let them go, and made them slave even harder. He commanded his taskmasters and soldiers to force them to make bricks without straw.

God sent me and Aaron back, to command Pharaoh to let God's people go. He refused again, and God turned Aaron's staff into a serpent to prove to Pharaoh that He was God. Pharaoh had his magicians do the same thing, but, the snake from Aaron's rod ate the magicians' snakes.

Again and again, Pharaoh hardened his heart against God, and would not let my people go. He was holding them in bondage by the power of his great armies, but I knew they would soon be delivered by the power of our Mighty God.

“I stood strong on God’s Word.”

houses, in their beds, in their kitchens, everywhere they looked, there were frogs. Still Pharaoh wouldn’t obey God’s Word. Then came the lice, then the flies; then all the cattle of Egypt died at God’s command. Pharaoh’s power was matchless against the power of Almighty God, yet his heart was hardened after every miracle that God performed.

Still, I didn’t give up. I moved forward with every commandment of God, with my staff and Aaron by my side.

I told Pharaoh at God’s command, “Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me.” Still, Pharaoh’s heart was hardened. “Let locusts cover the land of Egypt until the face of the earth cannot be seen.” It was so, yet Pharaoh refused. “Let darkness come upon Egypt for three days.” It was so dark you could feel it! Yet Pharaoh refused!

Finally, after God proved His Word one final time, Pharaoh had enough. He let God’s “Let all the waters of Egypt be turned into blood,” God commanded me to say. Still, Pharaoh wouldn’t listen. “Let frogs cover the entire land of the Egyptians.” There were frogs in their people go. Pharaoh realized that he could not fight against the only true and living God. My people were freed! God kept His promise.

This amazing story proves that God doesn’t need a great army and great men to show He is God. He just needs one man in His control. Brother Branham was that kind of man. God used him to move not only a nation, but the entire world. Though all organizations turned against him, and every army in hell tried to destroy him, he stood on the Word of God and led millions to the Lord Jesus Christ, including us. We were set free. God kept His promise to send us the prophet of Malachi 4:5.

STATS MOSES THE PROPHET

KNOWLEDGE

Moses learned what he needed to know from God. Knowledge from the Egyptians was worthless, and he knew it. That’s why Moses trusted the Lord for all things.

HOW HE SPOKE

Moses only said what God told him to say. He knew the Word of God could not fail.

A PROPHET

The Bible says that God spoke directly to Moses. He had the Word of God, and with it he delivered Israel from bondage.

GOLIATH

It is good to be me.
I am Goliath of Gath, the greatest warrior in the world!

I have trained for battle since I was a little boy, and believe me, it has been a long time since I was a little boy! I fear no one, and everyone fears me. In battle, I cannot be stopped. I alone, can conquer many men. No one has a chance against me, Goliath of Gath.

Today I will end this nonsense. The Israelites are just across the valley. I know that they don't have any soldier who can come close to matching me. I will challenge them this day, and they will serve me! I will be a hero to my Philistine people. The gods will worship ME!

“Look at my helmet, it is thick brass.

My coat of mail: there is none like it.

Look at my sword, have you ever seen a weapon like it?”

I am protected by the greatest armor in the world, none can touch it.

Those foolish Israelites could not even pick up my spear, let alone hurl it with my skill. I am going out to challenge them, but even though they are foolish, they surely would not answer a challenge from a great warrior like me.

Watch this: I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

^{Hah!} See? They do nothing. They are all cowards; but they are smarter than I give them credit for. I would not fight ME!

Urgh. I will be back tomorrow with the same challenge.

Here we are again. It's me, the greatest warrior in the world, challenging them; the weaklings believing in their one God. I challenge them again; and again, they just refuse to fight.

“ Say, anybody want to fight? I defy the armies of Israel! ”

Hey look. Who's this little shrimp coming? HAHAHA! It's just a little boy! Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? I curse you by my gods!

Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

What? You come in the Name of your God? Ha! This will be fun!

Wow, he's a crazy one, running right at me like that. Birds - get ready to eat your supper, I'm going to provide a nice meal for you today. HAHAH.... (THWACK!)

STATS

GOLIATH OF GATH

10 FEET TALL

The average man alive today is less than 6 feet tall, and David was a real little guy. Goliath was probably twice his size.

HEAVY ARMOR

Goliath had huge, heavy armor. It must've been hard for David to even pick up Goliath's sword. But he did it.

TRAINED WARRIOR

Goliath was trained to do one thing: Fight. He trusted the training and thought he needed nothing else.

David

I am David, the son of Jesse.

I am still young, and I'm little; kind of a weakling according to some people.

But I know that God is with me, so I don't feel weak.

God helped me kill a lion once, and also a bear. But still, I guess I am pretty little. You know how sometimes you just feel there is something special that God has for you to do? I feel that way right now.

My brothers fight for the Israelite army. They aren't little like me, they are big and brave. Actually, I'm on my way to bring them food to the battlefield. They are fighting those godless Philistines. I can't wait to see how the Lord shows His power on the battlefield. They will see the courage of our people and the power of the One, true God.

Young David made his way to the battlefield, where he found his brothers.

Hey, there they are. "Hello brother, hello everyone. Here is some food for you.

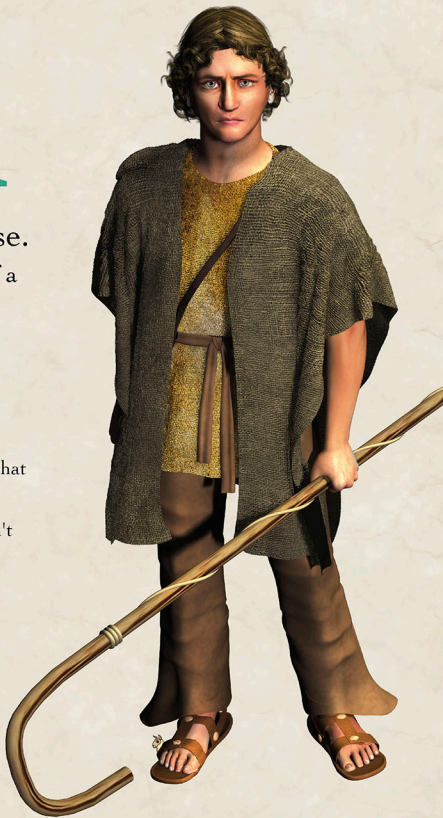

"Whoa, do you see the size of that guy? He's huge.

"Hey, listen to what he is saying. He can't say that and get away with it!

"Who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? Hey you, and you, did you hear that guy? He can't get away with that! He is our enemy. Are you guys just going to sit here and stand for that? Someone needs to show him the power of God! What reward will the person get who fights this giant? I will fight him! With God's help, I will kill him!"

King Saul heard about the young boy who wanted to fight the giant, so he sent for him.

"King Saul, I know I am just a boy, but God has blessed me. Once I was watching my father's sheep, and a bear came in and got one of the little lambs. With God's help, I killed him. And once a lion came and got one, and I knocked him down with my slingshot. And then when he rose up against me, I grabbed him by the beard and I slew him, single-handedly. I know the power of God, and this Philistine is no match for God! No one should be scared of him. I will fight him!"

Somehow, little David convinced the king to let him fight. Saul put a big brass helmet on young David, along with the best armor the Israelite army had. But David refused it.

"No, no, King, I can't wear this armor. I don't have faith in that. Goliath has faith in his armor and strength, I have faith in God!

"Goliath! Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

"Charge!"

The huge Goliath came to answer David's challenge, and to feed him to the birds, but David ran as hard as he could, right at him and the entire Philistine army.

"Lord, guide my stone." (ZING!) "Thank You Lord! Thank You Lord!"

The Lord took hold of David's stone and slew the mighty Goliath. The entire Philistine army ran in fear while the Israelites took courage and chased after them. God gave the victory to the Israelites because of the faith of one little courageous boy named David.

STATS DAVID

SIZE

David was not very tall. He was stoop-shouldered and everyone must have been shocked that he wanted to fight Goliath. But sometimes your size isn't what God uses.

KNOWLEDGE

Just like Brother Branham, David learned about God through nature. He learned that no matter what, with God on his side, he had nothing to fear.

FAITH

David put his faith in the One that had proven Himself over and over again. He trusted the Lord, and was victorious in battle.

MANIAC OF

Evil has always tried to fight God, but God always wins. Sometimes it happens in a way that you don't expect, but the result is always the same: God wins.

One time, Brother Branham was preaching in Portland, Oregon when a crazy man decided to come after him. This great-big man just hated preachers. He weighed nearly 300 lbs., and Brother Branham was a small man, so the crazy man could've really hurt him. The maniac was on the run from the police because he had just fought another man the day before. He had broken the man's jaw, his collar bone, and knocked him out onto the street. He was a big, mean, tough man; the kind of man who no one wants to mess with.

He was standing in front of Brother Branham, calling him a "hypocrite" and a "snake in the grass." He said, "I'll show how much man of God you are, I'll break every bone in your body."

Brother Branham knew the man was possessed by the devil, so he just kept on preaching. The huge man kept yelling names at Brother Branham, until finally he walked up and spit right in Brother Branham's face. Brother Branham knew that God was in full control. He bravely looked up at the man and said, "Tonight you'll fall over my feet; you'll bow to the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ."

The man said, "I'll show you how much your feet I bow to." He ran forward and drew back his big fist to hit Brother Branham. Just then, Brother Branham said, "Satan, come out of the man."

PORTLAND

A large crowd of people, likely a church congregation, is shown in a hall. In the foreground, the back of a man's head is visible, showing a large balding patch on top. The man is wearing a dark suit jacket and a white shirt. The crowd in the background is diverse in age and appearance, and they are all looking towards the camera.

God showed what kind of Warrior He was. That great big man screamed out, threw up his hands and fell down on the floor, right on top of Brother Branham's feet.

Just like David when he faced Goliath, Brother Branham didn't have the physical strength to defeat that great-big, crazy man. But both David and Brother Branham trusted God to do their fighting for them. Their faith was not in muscle, but in God; and God, once again, defeated Satan!

GOD'S CREATIONS

Alpacas

AND MAYBE A LLAMA OR TWO

JULY 2012 23

WHAT IS AN ALPACA?

Alpacas are members of the South American "camelid" family. They are related to Llamas and Guanacos. They come from countries in South America including Peru, Northern Bolivia, Ecuador, and Chile.

ALPACA YARN

Typically an alpaca gets shorn once per year. The fleece is used for yarn, fabric and other products such as hats, blankets, rugs, scarves, and shawls.

Did you know that Brother Branham had an alpaca jacket? Yup, you can hear it on 54-0307a THE END TIME.

These women in Peru are weaving with alpaca yarn.

The machines they use are called "looms." They don't require electricity, like ours do. Looks fun!

ALPACA FACTS:

- ALPACAS HAVE A LIFE SPAN OF 15 TO 20 YEARS.
- THE AVERAGE WEIGHT OF AN ADULT IS 150-185 LBS.
- THEY LIKE EACH OTHER'S COMPANY.
- WHEN SCARED, THEY HUDDLE TOGETHER.
- ALPACA BABIES ARE CALLED "CRIA".
- WHEN THEY GET MAD THEY SPIT ON EACH OTHER.

"PICKING" SHOES

Sometimes the English language can be kind of funny. Two words can sound the same, but mean different things. And sometimes, to little kids, they sound really silly! Brother Branham heard one of these words when he was a little boy, and it's pretty funny what he thought about it:

“And then, I remember that when he got me my first pair of shoes, he--he said he was going down, him and mama, to pick them out. I'd been barefooted. You know, the little boys down in the mountains where I was raised just had a, what you call the old hickory, a little apron like, or, a little shirt when they was a little boy. I wore that till I was about six years old, I guess. And my first pair of shoes, they had the cap across them, that's got them little holes in them.

And I'd always, when I'd get a splinter in my hand, I'd run to Mama, and she'd pick it out like that. And I thought them little holes in my shoes was where they'd took a needle and picked them out of somewhere, 'cause Mama said she had to go down and "pick me out" a pair of shoes. I thought she did it with a needle.”

That's pretty funny isn't it? If you want to hear Brother Branham tell the story, you can listen to it on "From That Time" - 60-0716.

There are lots of words that sound alike, but mean different things. There's READ and RED - BLEW and BLUE - PAIR and PEAR. Sea if ewe can think of sum more. And remember - Next time your mom wants to go pick out your shoes, you don't have to worry about getting POKED with a NEEDLE!
