WELCOME!

Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Welcome to our 24th issue of Cub Corner Magazine! Every issue is super fun to make, and this one was no exception. We take a look at the stories of Gideon with his army, and Joshua when he commanded the sun to stand still. Both Gideon and Joshua trusted God. Even though things didn't go like they expected, they both knew that the Lord was in control, and He would take care of them.

The same God of Gideon and Joshua is still in control today. He may not cause the sun to stand still again, but He might do something that seems just as impossible. Gideon was preparing for a tough battle against the huge Midianite army when God instructed him on how to cut the size of his army way down. It didn't seem to make any sense, but God's ways do not always make sense to us.

We hope this issue will help you better understand God and His ways. But remember that even though we can't completely understand God, we still have to believe Him. Believing Him is way more important than understanding Him!

God bless you. Enjoy your Cub Corner Magazine,
Brother Joseph

I butter-fly away before you find me!!

Dear CC,

Greetings in Jesus' Wonderful Name. I have a small testimony for the Glory of God.

On Sunday I woke up and found some bites on my arm. I had been bitten by a spider.

We didn't know what type of spider it was. I put some ice on it and kept saying "I am healed, I will be fine." So I just left it as that and did my chores.

Just before church I looked at my arm and there was no spider bite there!

Praise the Lord! Jesus healed me!

God bless you, Sarah (Australia)

Hi Sister Sarah. We hear that spiders in Australia can be very dangerous. God really helped you that day. Thank you for telling us about it. God bless you! - CC

Dear CC,

I love your magazines! I was so happy when I saw the recipe for strawberry popsicles in issue 20. I got four popsicle molds for my 11th birthday, so I am always looking for new ways to make popsicles. I plan to make a lot of popsicle this summer.

I hope you have a great summer. God bless you,

Elizabeth

What a coincidence!
We love
popsicles too!
Have a great summer!

Dear CC,

I just want to thank you for all you're doing for the little Bride of Christ. I would like to share a testimony with all my brothers and sisters.

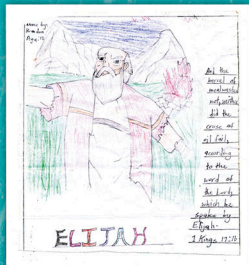

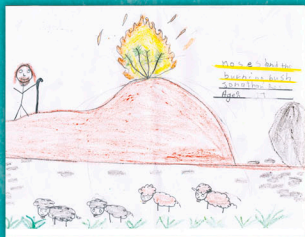

I was visiting my great-grandmother's house, and I was getting ready to go to sleep, when I put one shoe on, to hop to where I was sleeping. I left the other shoe where it was. I thought my little sister had showed me that shoe, then put it on the table next to me, but the next morning, I couldn't find it anywhere! My great grandma has a big yard, so I had a lot of places to look. I prayed about it all the time I was looking. My mom and grandma had looked under the travel trailer which was in my great-grandma's yard, and still couldn't find it. I got really desperate, because I didn't want my mom to have to buy me another pair of shoes. I prayed, "Lord, Your Word said all things are possible to them that believe and I believe, Lord, that I will find my shoe."

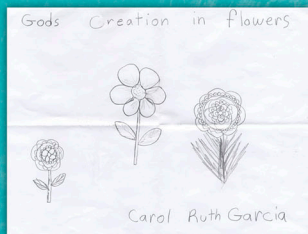

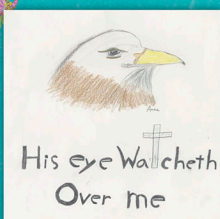

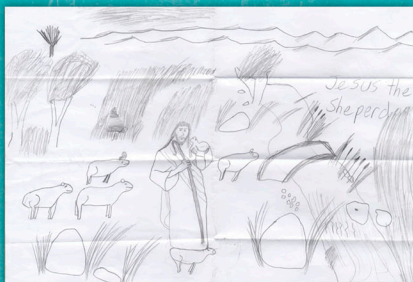

I looked up, and there was my sister, Laura, holding out my shoe! She said she looked under the travel trailer where we had already looked. It was so amazing! I'm so glad that so great a God can do such small things! :) God bless you!

My name is Katie, and I am 10 years old.

Thank you very much for the testimony, we really enjoyed reading about how the Lord still answers prayer.
God bless you! - CC

CC ARTWORK

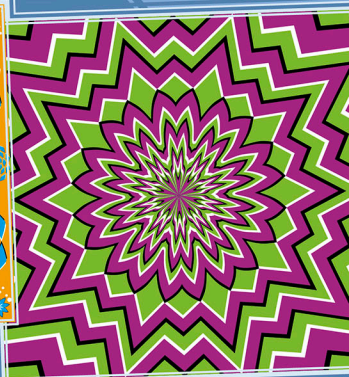

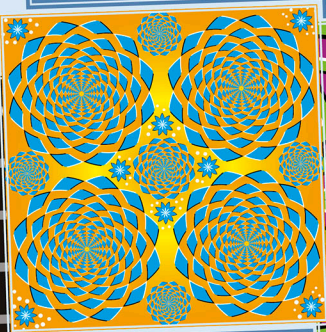

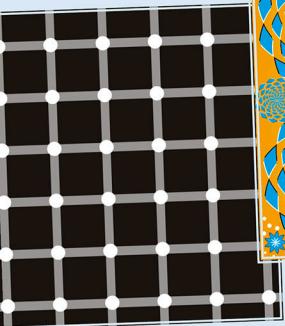

OPTICAL ILLUSIONS

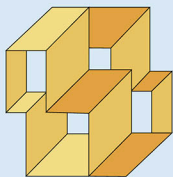

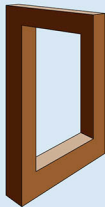

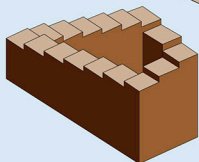

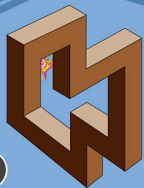

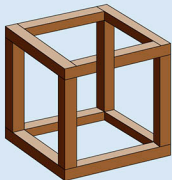

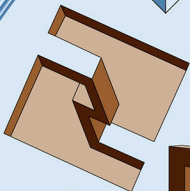

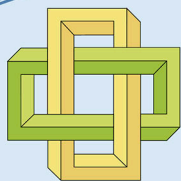

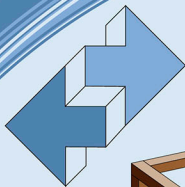

That's Weird!!! Here are some things that might make you think you are going crazy. They are called optical illusions. Don't stare too long!

The men in the back look bigger than the front one, but all three are the exact same size!

Both of these lines are the same length!
The only difference is the direction the arrows are pointing.

Johnny Crow

One time there was an old farmer who had a cornfield. The crows kept coming by and eating up all his corn, so he set a trap and caught one. He said, "I'll fix the rest of them crows."

So the farmer tied the crow by its foot to the fence, and that poor, old crow hobbled and jumped, and hobbled and jumped, and he couldn't get away, because he was tied up. He was starving, and ate everything around that he could reach.

The old crow got to where he just couldn't hardly fly or jump up and down any more. All the other crows would come by and holler, "Come on, Johnny Crow. Let's go south. It's turning winter. You'll die setting there. Let's go, Johnny Crow."

Johnny Crow said, "I can't. I'm tied."

Then one day a good man came by. He said, "That poor, old crow. Look at him, hobbling around there. He's getting weak." So he caught the old fellow, petted him a little bit, took the latch off of his foot, and turned him loose.

After the nice man walked away, the old crow just kept walking around in the same circle. He was untied and didn't even know it. The other crows came by and said, "Come on, Johnny Crow. Let's go south. It's coming winter."

Johnny Crow said, "I can't. I'm still tied." But really he was free. You see, Johnny Crow had been tied up for so long that he didn't even realize that the man had come and set him free.

Brother Branham said that's the same thing a lot of Christians do. The devil might have tied you up with being sick all the time, or doing the wrong things, but remember, there was a good Man, Jesus Christ, Who came by one day and redeemed you. He cut every string loose from you to set you free. Don't just sit there, fly away from sin!

"And that's the way a lot of people are tonight, friends. You just been in sin so long, serving the enemy, till you think you're still tied when really you're loose."

Let's go to Calvary tonight, get out of the things of the world. Oh, He's wonderful. Know that we are free: He who the Son has made free, is free indeed." 55-1119

Here are a couple of games you can do with your family and friends. They are super fun and some are really funny. Let us know if you like them, and send in some new games that you like to play with your family!

Cracker Smacker

For this game you need two teams. The teams can be one or more people each. The only requirement is that each person must be able to whistle.

Place two soda crackers in front of each person. The first person on each team eats the crackers and tries to whistle. As soon as he/she is able to whistle, the second person eats their crackers and tries to whistle. This continues until each person has whistled. The team that finishes first wins!

What's the word?

For this game you need at least three players, but it is more fun if you have five or more.

One person leaves the room while the other players decide on a "word." Once they have picked a word the first player comes back into the room and asks each player a question. The question can be about anything. Each player should give a 3-4 sentence answer, using the "word" at least once. The guessing player tries to guess the common word that everyone used.

These pals got their names all mixed up. See if you can figure out who's who. As a bonus, help them find their missing things!

- Dinwoodie keeps all of his work in his briefcase, and likes to collect pens!

- Jud loves the snow and hot chocolate!

- Jeffery likes to make a mess while painting!

- Jipper climbs ladders and sprays water!

- Skipper always reels in the big ones!

- Bud loves to fly around in space!

- Bipper likes to wear ties!

- Stuart rides horses and ropes cattle!

GG PHOTO CONTEST

A couple magazines ago we asked you to send in your best photos for the "Where I see God" photo contest. There were so many great photos and notes about seeing God, it was really hard to pick only three winners. Thanks to everyone who sent in a photo! HERE ARE THE WINNERS!!!

I see God in this picture by His Word.

Every time I see the Bible it reminds me of what He has done for me, what He is doing for me, and what He is going to do for me.

The Anchor causes me to realize that He is my Anchor, I can lean on Him and trust that He will never move, and that I should keep myself anchored in Him and His Word. Our prophet, Bro. Branham, says, "Our anchor is steadfast, unmovable; it holds in, within the veil," which is written on the glass anchor in this photo.

The "Quiet Time" book makes me think about the wonderful experiences I've had with the Lord during my "Quiet Time" with Him.

The Still Waters pen always brings back all the wonderful things that happened to me while I was at Still Waters. My relationship with the Lord grew stronger and the experiences I had with Him while I was there changed my life for ever!!! - Grace W.

Matthew says he "sees God in nature." Isn't it amazing how the old dying log can bring such beautiful life from it? Brother Branham said: "Something has to die so you can live." This is showing the death of the old log giving birth to the beautiful green buds.

Grace L. sees God in these spring flowers. "God made them so pretty. It makes me think that Heaven will be so perfect."

HONORABLE MENTIONS:

the Fisherman Missionary

It wasn't long ago that the Soviet Union was controlled by a godless form of government called communism. They didn't allow people to freely believe and worship God but they still couldn't stop the Word.

In the small country of Holland, God called a little missionary family, named the Buitenkamp's. Led by Brother Heino Buitenkamp, this believing family would dedicate their lives to leading people to Christ. Brother Gerald Buitenkamp, Brother Heino's son, now manages the VGR European office with help from his wife and sons, Brother Timothy, Brother Matthew, and Brother Benjamin. They have hundreds of missionary stories they could share, these are only a few of them:

"I remember some outstanding times how we had to cross those border check points. I always thought, "How would we ever get through all these check points." On many trips, dad pulled a trailer loaded with all the translated messages, and managed to get through the guards by having a bunch of goodies like chocolate, candy, coffee and fruit. I remember how he had to teach them to peel an orange; some had never seen one before. Back in those days, it was hard to get any of those products, for those who lived in the poor countries of Eastern Europe.

"The Lord provides you with the right tools that you need to get the work done when you surrender everything to Him."

These things were kind of the bait on the hook to give the border guards the delicious goodies from the west that they normally could not get. Dad always found a way to get border guards to let us through and take the attention away from the precious cargo of the Message, which is what it was all about.

I remember as the work grew, Bro. Joseph asked me to work for VGR at the European office. He decided to ship us a Ford pick-up Every trip would usually be about 3,000 miles; about equal to a one way trip from coast to coast in the U.S. We usually loaded a rubber raft with oars on top of the trailer to make it look like we were happy campers! And we sure were!

When we arrived at the border, the custom guards would normally check our passports first, then take a good look at the vehicle. Of course it looked totally different from any vehicle they had ever seen. As they inspected the back, where all the Message material was, they saw all the farm produce and asked if everything in the back was food. I always replied, "yes," knowing that most of it was Spiritual Food!

truck, a very rare thing in Eastern Europe. The Lord provides you with the right tools that you need to get the work done when you surrender everything to Him. This truck had plenty of space to carry the big loads of material that we needed to bring to all these eastern countries. I usually took my entire family, including all three boys who were very young at the time, on my trips. When loading the material, we put all the tapes and books in the bed of the truck, then put our luggage on top of it. Next, we would stack on farm produce like potatoes, tomatoes, tomato plants, and used clothes to give to the poor. I would hang my fishing poles on the side of the camper shell and sometimes even pulled a small trailer that could bring another load of tapes and books.

Of course the border patrol saw that we had our fishing gear and portable barbecue in the truck with a rubber raft on top of the trailer we were pulling. Time after time they would ask if we were going fishing. Again, I replied, "Yes sir!" Knowing in my heart that we were fishing for men! It was the bait on the hook! "Take no thought of what you will have to say for He will give you the right words to speak!"

I remember another occasion that the border guards asked me to see the cab and engine of the truck. His first reply was, "wow this is like an airplane!" I offered him a ride across the border and gave him the front seat. He was so excited to have a little ride in an American vehicle that he forgot all about checking to see what was in the back of it! I popped the hood and showed him the engine which took all attention away from the precious cargo that was stored in the back.

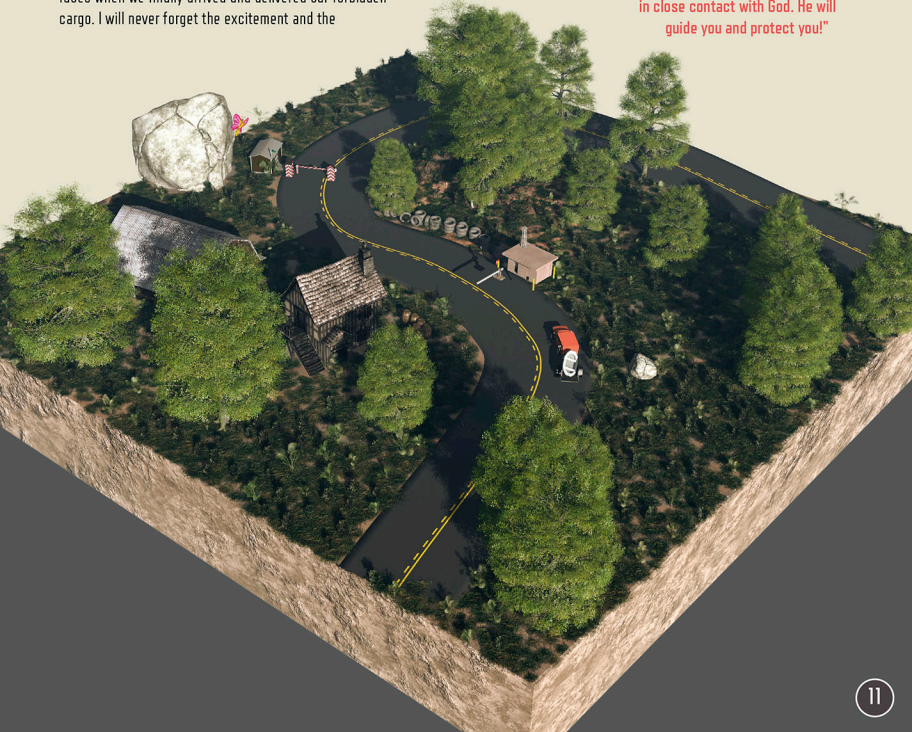

Another time I remember arriving at the Romanian border with the red truck. Customs were stopping every vehicle, even the Red Cross. When we arrived we were the only truck that was waved right on through. Everybody else had to unload everything out of their vehicle.

The Lord surely took care of us in many ways to get the stored up Food to His people. You can imagine the look on the believers' faces when we finally arrived and delivered our forbidden cargo. I will never forget the excitement and the look in their eyes; how happy they were to get ahold of these new translated messages that came from the storehouse in Jeffersonville.

These are only a few stories of how the Lord has helped our little missionary family. If you think that you would like to be a missionary, I would advise you to always keep in the Word, and start in your own backyard. Witness to your neighbors, or anyone else the Lord leads you to. The key is to be in close contact with God. He will guide you and protect you!"

GIDEON

In the Old Testament Book of Judges, we learn the story of a poor farmer named Gideon.

One day, Gideon was threshing wheat, while trying to hide it from the thieving Midianites. He knew that whatever they saw, they would steal. They had enemies all around them, ones that weren't afraid to attack them whenever they saw something they wanted.

Then suddenly, Gideon saw the Angel of the Lord standing under an oak tree. The angel said, "The Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valour."

Gideon replied, "Oh my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of..."

The Angel told Gideon that God had chosen him to smite the Midianites! Gideon couldn't believe it, he was a nobody; he came from a poor family, and he was the least of all of them. Gideon needed a sign from God, so the Angel told him what to do to receive his sign. Gideon soon returned with exactly what the Angel said. He was to bring back a meal of young goat and unleavened cakes. He laid it upon a rock just as the Angel instructed. Then Gideon got his sign. The Angel touched the offering with the end of his staff and fire rose up out of the rock and consumed the meat and bread! Suddenly the Angel was gone.

Time went on, and Gideon realized that God truly had chosen him to fight the Midianites.

He continued to do exactly as God told him, and God continued to show Gideon signs that He was with him.

Soon, Gideon had a huge army with him. Surely God had blessed him and prepared him for a great battle and victory, but things weren't going to happen exactly like Gideon thought they would.

You see, God wants people to understand just how powerful He really is. If Gideon's army was too big, the people would've thought they won the battle on their own, without God's help. So God decided to take the huge army and make it small. He knew that He could trust Gideon to do exactly what He said, so He told him to ask every soldier if he was scared. Those who said yes got to return home. Those who weren't scared, stayed. Gideon's army quickly shrank from 32,000 soldiers to only 10,000. But God wasn't done yet.

The Angel told Gideon that God had chosen him to smite the Midianites!

Next, God told Gideon to bring his whole army down to the water for a drink. Gideon watched as each one quenched his thirst. Almost all of them got down on their knees and drank directly from the water, while just a few cupped the water into their hands to drink. Gideon separated the two groups. Those who got on their knees would go back to the camp, while those who cupped the water would stay and fight. Only 300 men of Gideon's army remained! God had taken Gideon's army down from 32,000 soldiers to only 300! But God had a plan.

Gideon divided his 300 remaining men into three groups of 100. Instead of some new, super weapon, Gideon gave each man a trumpet and a pitcher with a torch in it. How would they fight thousands of Midianites with trumpets, pitchers, and torches?

Finally, Gideon gave everyone their orders. They were to surround the enemy's camp in the middle of the night and all at one time blow on their trumpets as loud as they could. At the same time, they would break their pitchers and reveal the torch that was inside.

When the Midianites heard the trumpets and saw the torches, they were terrified. Thousands and thousands of frightened Midianites fled as fast as they could. They were certain that they were defeated.

Israel rallied around Gideon and defeated the fleeing Midianites. God had once again showed how powerful He was, and He did it with only 300 soldiers and one faithful leader.

Joshua

After the battle of Jericho, Israel's enemies began to fear Joshua and his powerful God.

They had heard of the great victories Joshua had won, and it scared them. They decided to attack right away, before Joshua got too big and powerful.

Five kings teamed up against Joshua. They were too wise to attack him directly, so they agreed to a surprise attack against Joshua's friends, the Gibeonites.

Joshua's friends pleaded for help, and at once, the Israelites sprang into action. The Lord had told Joshua to fight, and fight they would!

The battle started, and everyone quickly realized that Joshua would not be beaten. The kings and their armies quickly retreated, but it was too late; they had picked a fight with God and His mighty general!

The Lord kept His promise and fought alongside Joshua, casting down great stones onto his enemy. The kings and their armies ran away as fast as they could. Joshua and his army chased them but the sun was starting to set. Soon it would be dark, and Joshua would be forced to let the enemy go, only to have them come back and fight another day. Then suddenly something happened that had never happened before: Joshua commanded the sun to stand still!

“Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.”

There, in Gibeon, the sun stood still as Joshua and his warriors overtook their challengers. God provided an extra day of daylight for his children! Imagine the fear the Amorites must have felt when they saw the power of the God of the Israelites. He could command the sun to stand still, and it obeyed!

Today, the same God that was with Joshua is with us. He is still able to do great and mighty things, but we have to believe in Him. Always remember that God doesn't do things like we would do. Sometimes He does totally unexpected things. Our job is to trust in Him and know that He is always in control.

You can read this story in Joshua Chapter 10

the 1937 flood

It was the year 1937, and Brother Branham was 27 years old. He had a son, Billy Paul, and a little baby daughter, Sharon Rose. Brother Branham's wife, Sister Hope, had fallen sick and he was spending every minute that he could with her.

Then the flood came.

Earlier, the Lord had shown Brother Branham a vision about a great flood that would roll through Jeffersonville, and now it was coming to pass. The Ohio River quickly swelled over its banks, all the way up to the flood walls. The river kept rising and rising until finally a dike broke, releasing the water into downtown Jeffersonville!

It was chaos, everyone scrambled to go and help those who were in the way of the flood. Brother Branham got his boat and headed out to help a mother who was stranded on top of her porch with her children.

He quickly found them and got them in the boat, but the young mother was crying for her baby. Brother Branham thought there must be another baby inside the house so he went in to look for it. There wasn't a baby there, so he headed back out to the boat. Just then the house gave way. Brother Branham quickly reached down into the water and untied his boat from the house as he was swept out into the Ohio River! His boat was quickly headed for the raging Ohio Falls. Brother Branham tried and tried to get his motor started, but it wouldn't go. The Ohio Falls were getting closer and closer. If his little boat were to go over the falls, it would be certain death.

FLOODED STREETS IN DOWNTOWN JEFFERSONVILLE. JAN 1937

FALLS OF THE OHIO RIVER, JEFFERSONVILLE, IN

Brother Branham prayed and repented for something that had happened earlier, "God, I know I've done wrong. I know I oughtn't to have listened to what I did. Please, dear Heavenly Father." Brother Branham pulled again and the little motor finally sputtered to a start. He was saved!

Brother Branham quickly rushed back to town to try to find his own wife and babies. It was the beginning of a very hard time for Brother Branham, but God carried him through it all. He led His prophet throughout his whole life, so he could bring us this great Message!

HEY CUB, CHECK OUT WORMY! HE'S MY NEW PET.

WOW, I'VE NEVER SEEN SUCH A COLORFUL WORM.

MOMMY SAID ITS A CAPERDILLER, OR SOMETHING LIKE THAT.

COOL, WHAT DOES IT EAT?

I THINK IT EATS HOT DOGS, BUT I'M NOT SURE.

I DON'T THINK IT WANTS TO EAT IN FRONT OF US. LET'S LEAVE AND COME BACK LATER.

GREAT IDEA. MAN, YOU'RE SMART.

A WHILE LATER...

AHHHHHH!!!

WHAT IS IT, PAL? ARE YOU OK?

AHHHHHH!!!!

MONKEY, YOU ALREADY SAID THAT.

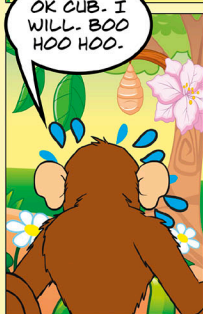

OH YEAH, SORRY. IT'S JUST THAT...AHHHHHH!!!

FOCUS, MONKEY.

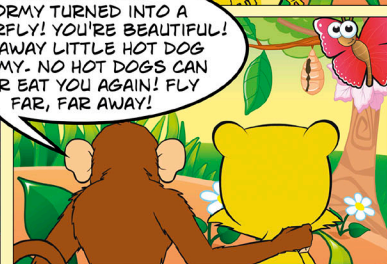

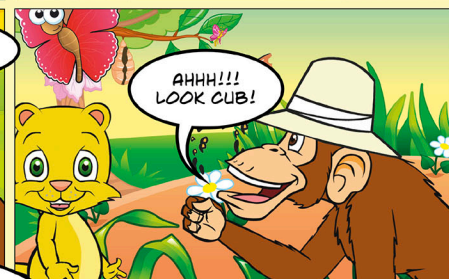

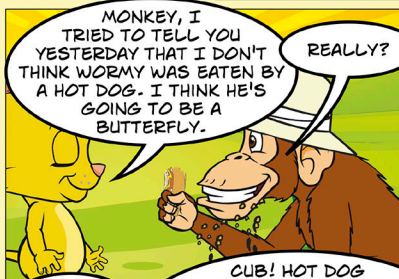

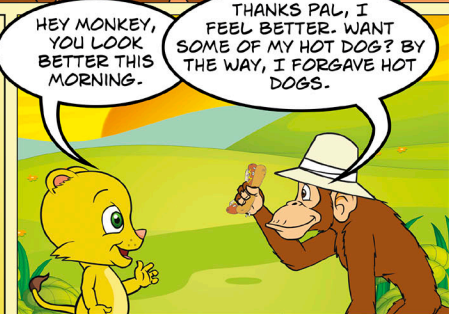

THE HOT DOG ATE MY CAPERDILLER!!!

MONKEY, WHEN A CATERPILLAR GETS READY TO TURN INTO A BUTTERFLY, IT MAKES A "COOCON..."

MONKEY WAS REALLY SAD THAT NIGHT, BUT AFTER PRAYING ABOUT WORMY, HE SEEMED TO FEEL BETTER ABOUT THE WHOLE SITUATION. HE KNEW THAT GOD WAS IN CHARGE, AND HE JUST NEEDED TO TRUST IN HIM.

MONKEY DIDN'T REALLY UNDERSTAND WHAT WAS HAPPENING WITH HIS NEW PET, BUT HE LEARNED A VALUABLE LESSON ANYWAY: ALWAYS TRUST GOD. HE JUST MIGHT HAVE SOMETHING VERY SPECIAL WAITING FOR YOU!

God's Creations

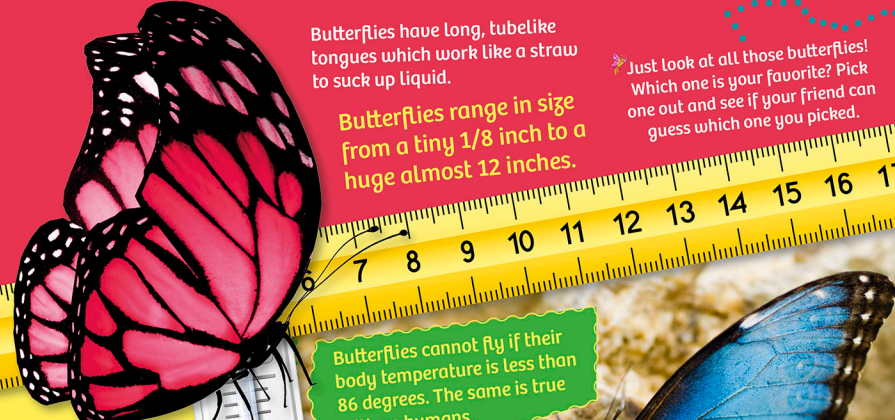

butterflies

I said, "You can't... You're trying to compare the ridiculous with the sublime. You can't prove that." I said, "But I can prove to you that the Lord Jesus has raised from the dead, and is alive right now." Yes, sir.

Then should not we be the happiest people? No wonder we can feel the way we do tonight. No wonder our hearts can beat like a butterfly in there flopping. Because it's the truth. 57-0226

Butterflies have long, tubelike tongues which work like a straw to suck up liquid.

Butterflies range in size from a tiny 1/8 inch to a huge almost 12 inches.

Just look at all those butterflies! Which one is your favorite? Pick one out and see if your friend can guess which one you picked.

Butterflies like to drink from mud puddles. Although they are dirty, the muddy water provides minerals that butterflies need.

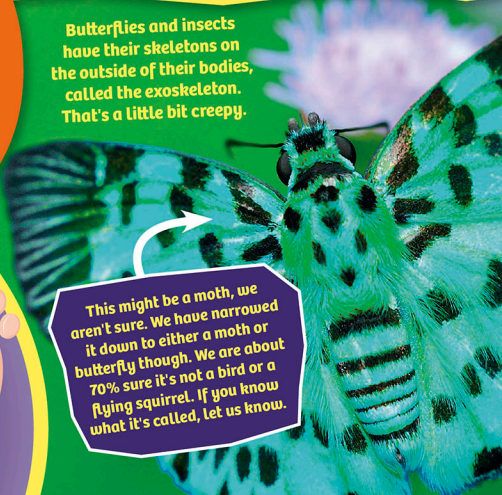

Butterflies cannot fly if their body temperature is less than 86 degrees. The same is true with us humans.

Butterflies and insects have their skeletons on the outside of their bodies, called the exoskeleton. That's a little bit creepy.

Many butterflies can taste with their feet! If your little brother could do that, he would always have a bad taste in his mouth!

This might be a moth, we aren't sure. We have narrowed it down to either a moth or butterfly though. We are about 70% sure it's not a bird or a flying squirrel. If you know what it's called, let us know.

They estimate that there are 15,000-20,000 different types of butterflies in the world. There are nearly 4,000 different types in Peru alone!

Butterflies are found worldwide, except on Antarctica - we figure butterflies and penguins must not get along too well.

Butterflies breathe through openings on their belly called 'spiracles.'

Monarch butterflies journey from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, a distance of about 2,000 miles, only to turn back around and do it all over again. It's like a lifelong family vacation road trip!

WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN UP TO?

One Cub Corner group from Canada got together a while back and decided to make cupcakes. They decorated them to reflect stories that Brother Branham tells. Here is their story:

Dear Cub Corner,

Last march we had an activity for our Sunday school kids. I am sending you pictures.

Sunday school activity of the Shawinigan, Québec, Canada, Young Bride of Christ from L'Église de Jésus-Christ de la Pentecôte.

This past March, we rented a hall in Mont-Carmel, where the Young Christian Soldiers came to decorate cupcakes. We took some stories from Brother Branham's messages and the kids all together became artists of yummy cakes. The kids were proud of their creations.

After their great work, some went to play outside in the snow and some played inside with other games. We had a pizza party for supper and then after, the parents, grandparents, and Christian believers were invited to eat the artist cakes.

We thank our Lord for that wonderful time. Thanks to all the volunteers that helped to make this day a wonderful time for our young ones.

God bless you all!

Sis. Stéphanie

Let us know what your Cub Corner group has been up to.
We'd love to tell the world about it!
