DEAR RECEIVING STATIONS,

The Voice of God is still alive today, and is speaking to you! In this magazine you're going to read about a few characters that were given the GREATEST opportunity in the world, the decision to follow our Lord Jesus. And we have the very SAME opportunity, to listen to His Voice and follow His Word for TODAY.

"Now, if you can just be the station to pick That up, by some control inside of you, by faith, it'll move you right into the cycle of God, to the new Birth, and be born again. Then you'll always be in contact, to hear that Voice that will always warn you when danger is along. When things are wrong, going wrong, it'll always be a warning to you."

63-0601 Come, Follow Me

There were some who, because of their wealth and riches, refused to follow the Lord Jesus. There were some that really believed, but because of their position in their church could not confess Him publicly. And then there were those that made their own home a church to receive the Message.

The devil will offer a lot, but he has NOTHING to give. Our Lord Jesus told us, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." He knows our needs. He knows our wants. And He promised to give us the desire of our hearts. If we put Him first above ALL THINGS, then we have ALL THINGS through Him.

I love you. And I want to encourage you to keep God's Voice, these Tapes, first in your lives, and everything will come out just right.

God bless you,
Brother Joseph

A man in a blue robe is climbing a red rope that is attached to a window on a stone wall. The scene is set at night under a starry sky. Another man in a green robe is at the bottom of the frame, holding the rope. A speech bubble from the man in the window says, "I'LL BE WATCHING AND WAITING TILL THE TIME!". A speech bubble from the man in the blue robe says, "REMEMBER, WE'RE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR YOU IF YOU'RE OUT FROM UNDER THE TOKEN!".

I'LL BE WATCHING AND WAITING TILL THE TIME!

REMEMBER,
WE'RE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR YOU
IF YOU'RE OUT
FROM UNDER THE TOKEN!

"THE MESSAGE GOT TO THE PREDESTINATED SEED, ANYHOW. WE DON'T KNOW HOW IT GOT THERE, BUT IT GOT THERE, SO THAT THE JUST WILL NOT PERISH WITH THE UNJUST. GOD IS SEEING TO THAT, TODAY. YEAH, SOME WAY IT SLIPS IN. WE DON'T KNOW HOW. THOUGH THEY WON'T SPONSOR IT, BUT THERE IS SOME SEED OUT THERE THAT'S PREDESTINATED.

ANYONE KNOWS ANYTHING ABOUT THE BIBLE, KNOWS THAT THAT HARLOT WAS PREDESTINATED. SHE SURE WAS! SHE DIDN'T...THE BIBLE SAID, 'SHE PERISHED NOT WITH THEM WHO BELIEVED NOT.' THAT'S RIGHT. BUT SHE BELIEVED THE MESSAGE OF THE HOUR."

the Rich man's Poor choice

There he stood,
face to face with Jesus, with the greatest opportunity in the world...

The Words, "Come, follow Me," had just been uttered by God Himself, and fell on the young man's ears. Jesus' disciples stood by, watching what would take place. "Another disciple? Another brother?" They may have thought to themselves.

With his eyes locked, the young man stood there, as Jesus waited for his response. A whirlwind of thoughts must have come through his mind of what things he would have to give up to follow Jesus, knowing he did not possess Eternal Life. The influence of his friends, perhaps a young lady he wished to marry, and above all, his wealth, all warring against his decision to follow God's Word made flesh.

The Lord Jesus, the very Creator of heavens and earth, looked at him and loved him. He knew what was holding the boy back when He said, "Yet, you lack one thing".

He knew what the boy would have to sacrifice to follow Him, but what a greater reward he would receive in doing so.

From being raised in a Hebrew home, he knew what to look for when the Messiah would come. He knew the prophecies, he knew the Word, and here it was standing before him.

His priests had nothing more to offer, which is why he ran quickly, knelt down before the Lord, and asked, "Good Master, what must I do to inherit Eternal Life?"

Reaching the pinnacle of life at a young age, he had need of nothing else, materially. Did all of this have to go away? Why couldn't he keep his money and things and still serve the Lord Jesus? "I've kept the law; I've been a good person. I can do good with my money," he may have thought.

He was a good person, he lived a clean life, but that's not all the Lord had asked of him. To be "perfect," he had to accept the Person that was standing before him.

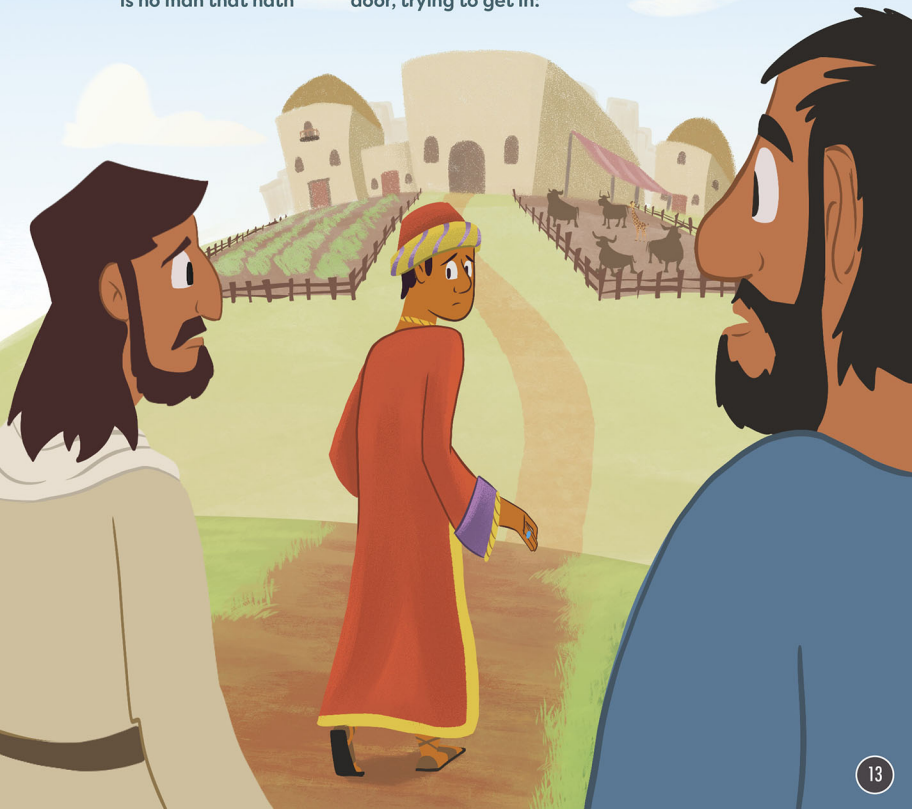

He had a decision to make. He couldn't wait any longer. This very moment would change his life forever. With sorrow, and without even the words to speak, he turned from Eternity.

Next to Jesus, stood His disciples. "Master, we've left all to follow You," said Peter. Jesus turned and said, "Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the Kingdom of God's sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come Life everlasting."

Loving the boy, how do you think the Lord felt when he turned away? Probably the same way He feels today, when He's knocking at the door, trying to get in:

"If any man hear My Voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me."

God's Creations

When you see a giraffe, you can't help but notice the beautiful brown spots that decorate their entire body.

While these spots are used for camouflage, it is believed they are also used to release body heat. God in His Own fashion created a way for these animals to survive in the rugged African wilderness. No two patterns on a giraffe are alike either. Each design is completely unique to every giraffe, just like our fingerprints!

Brother Branham Said,

"He stood back there, He's the Creator of all things. He made life; frogs, oh, bees, ducks, chickens, animals, created everything. 'And nothing was made but what was made by Him.' Who? Christ, the Deity!"

▶ 49-1225 The Deity Of Jesus Christ

Location

Giraffes are solely found on the continent of Africa, unless, of course, you see them in a zoo! They graze in grassy plains called “savannas.”

Super Tall

Giraffes are the tallest known land mammal on the earth. They can get up to 20 feet tall – that’s as tall as a two-story house! This means they can reach WAYYYYY up in the trees for their food!

What do they eat?

Giraffes love Acacia leaves, which provide a lot of nutrients for them! These same leaves are an important source of water for them too, so they don’t have to bend down and drink water all the time!

How do they drink water?

if there is water around,
they can spread their legs far apart to bend down
and drink!

Are those Horns?

On top of a giraffe's head are two little prongs that kind of look like furry horns. These are called, "ossicones." Male giraffes use these for combat, and even have an extra ossicone on their forehead! There are some species that have an extra pair of ossicones on the back of their heads!

Loong Tongues

With their long tongues they can lick up leaves right off the trees! Their tongues are built tough so they don't have to worry about thorns either!

Giraffes have different color tongues too! Some have black, blue or purple tongues!

And did you know a giraffe's tongue can be 18-20 inches long?!

Other Facts

- 🦒 Giraffes can run up to 35 miles per hour! That's probably faster than you can run!
- 🦒 Male giraffes are called bulls and female giraffes are called cows.
- 🦒 Giraffes have great eyesight, which helps them spot predators from far off.
- 🦒 A giraffe's hoof is around 12 inches in diameter!
- 🦒 It's said that they only sleep about 5 to 30 minutes a day.

THE SECRET MEETING

I HAVE TO SEE HIM,
BUT WHEN?

The old man paced the floor, back and forth, with his arms tucked behind him.

"But if I go now, they might see me. They'll know." Nicodemus knew he needed to see Jesus, but he couldn't be seen by the Pharisees.

"Hmm," he continued to think to himself, "I'll go tonight after dark. No one will even know I was there."

Nicodemus was torn within himself. He knew that Jesus was plainly identified by God. His life, His works, everything pointed to Him being the vindicated Word of that day. Nicodemus knew the Scripture and what the Messiah would be when He arrived, but could he give up his position in his church, and his status among the rabbis?

To be associated with Jesus would make him an outcast. Nicodemus was a master in all Israel, and he was getting to be an old man, but yet, he still needed a Guide. He sat and thought on these things as the sun began to set.

It was just about time. He would leave and be unseen. He walked to the door, unlatched it and opened it slowly, looking outside. The streets looked clear. He sighed in relief as he went out and shut the door.

"A little late in the evening for a stroll, isn't it Nicodemus?" Startled, Nicodemus turned quickly from his door to see members of the council gathered around him.

"Why, yes, Rabbi Simon. I, uh, was just stepping away from my study for some fresh air."

"I see," said the rabbi.

"What brings you brethren here so late?" asked Nicodemus.

“We suppose you’ve heard of this Jesus of Nazareth?” asked the rabbi.

“Sure. He’s caused quite a stir among the people. It’s said that many miracles have followed His ministry.”

“Of course. We know of his works as well. Truly, this could not be done without God... but he makes himself God! You know that is blasphemy!”

“Yes.” Nicodemus gazed at the men that had surrounded him.

“I see what you mean, Simon. Perhaps some think He is the Prophet that would raise up, as Moses said in the Scripture.”

“Nonsense, Nicodemus! You better be careful entertaining thoughts like that! It would only lead to your excommunication from the synagogue. You are a wiser man than that!”

Nicodemus looked around nervously at the group of men, before replying. “Certainly. I’m just saying what the people believe Him to be.”

“You wouldn’t want to find yourself at home one of these days, would you? With nowhere to attend? Hmm?” asked the rabbi.

“No, of course not!” said Nicodemus.

“People are beginning to put this man’s words above OURS, the PRIESTS’! Remember, the Jews must attend the synagogue, and WE are the ones to read the Scrolls to the people.”

“I see,” said Nicodemus as he faked a yawn. “Well, brethren, thank you for stopping by, but I’m afraid I must be off to bed.”

“Think about what we must do,” said Simon.

“Most definitely,” nodded Nicodemus.

The men left him as he stood there and continued to think about Jesus.

As he began walking down the street, he made his way down an alley till he reached a home that was candle-lit.

He approached the house nervously. Would Jesus be there? Would He welcome a Pharisee?

“He found the doors open, a welcome heart to receive him. Took him up on the housetop, and as they set there in the moonlight, and then Nicodemus was going to make his investment.”

► 63-0803B Investments

There, in a little, humble home, Nicodemus found the Words of Life. He may have come at night so he wouldn't be seen, but he did make it to Jesus.

If you were Nicodemus, could you have stood for the Word in that day? No matter what it cost? It's never popular to stand for Truth, but what greater Thing could we live for?

PRAYER for a little WREN

"Many times we think just because any thing is small, that it's not noticeable. But Jesus said that even a sparrow who was, two of them, sold for a fourth of a penny, and not one of those little birds could fall to the ground without God knowing it. God notices little things.

Now, many times you say, "I can't do very much about it, the conditions today." But just a little kind word to someone, an invitation, a little testimony, little kind smile, or a greeting to a passerby might mean more than you think it does. It's little."

57-0303E What Think Ye Of Christ?

We received this testimony from a sister that went into action when a little bird needed prayer:

Dear friends,

I want to share a little testimony that happened to me. I was running in from the barn and saw my cat, Dumplings, with something in her mouth. I ran towards her and when she saw me, she dropped a bird. It was a Jenny Wren. The bird flew into a tree. As I was taking Dumplings to her pen, I saw something drop out of the tree. I dropped the cat and ran to look. It was the bird. I took it to my room, praying the whole way, "Help it not to die!" I told the little bird, it couldn't die, because it was Mommy's favorite bird. Mommy came to my room and I told her what had happened. She told me to sit on the porch swing with it until it flew away. It began to look perky, so I sat in the yard with it. Very soon it flew away. Praise God!!! I was so happy that God answered my prayer!!

Thank you, Brother Joseph for all you do for us.

God bless you,

Jubilee

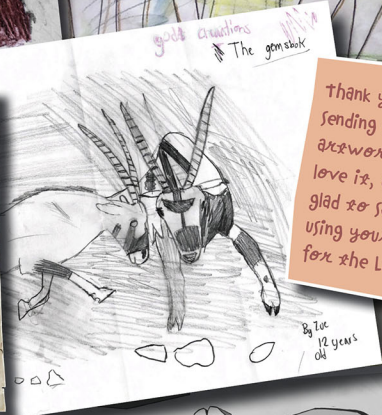

Sister Jubilee,

Thank you so much for sending in this testimony! Truly, our God cares for even the little things, like a little wren!

God bless you!
